

Page 30—S.F. Examiner · Friday, Mar. 10, 1972

Hassle on Pandas, S.F. Zoo

Objections to Musk Ox Deal

By Jerry Blisker
Chairman Maa's musk oxen — the San Francisco Zoo is giving a major gift to a zoo in a good deal, panda or no.

Pandas Here About April 1

WASHINGTON — (UPI) Two giant pandas — China's first gift to the United States — will arrive in the United States around April 1.

Chain Seeks OK to Build Hotel Here

The Howard Johnson chain is superheated by reports that many San Francisco hotels are being built in a hot market.

Pandas Here About April 1

WASHINGTON — (UPI) Two giant pandas — China's first gift to the United States — will arrive in the United States around April 1.

Girls' Nude Body Identified in Santa Rosa

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (UPI) — The nude body of a teen-age girl, found garroted to death Sunday in an isolated area about 10 miles east of Santa Rosa, has been identified as that of a local college student.

Candidate Files

Edwin S. Anderson, 47, of Millerton, an aviator, today filed his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the Assembly's 27th District in San Mateo County.

A Land Rush for S.F. Book Lovers

Some book buyers may be content to puff their pipes in the library but a more aggressive brand of bibliophile turned out last night for the preview of the Friends of the Library's eighth annual book sale.

Around Town with Gene DeForrest

Richard Chin's Catfish House on Grant is one of Chinatown's oldest and best restaurants. A busy spot with huge picture windows, the menu has an elaborate array of entrees and special dishes.

Home-made chateausis is now being served at A. S. Belli's Restaurant at Fisherman's Wharf.

The Four Seas are featuring the Peking dinner — the same nine-course feast that was served for the Presidential lady in China.

Miss Kieko At Chi Chi

Delights to the Cur & Truck Leasing Association Convention are frequent dinners at Phil Lee's Shoney's and with dinner parties and receptions in the Wellington Room.

Baroque for 3 to 150 persons can be accommodated at Mavor's Italian Restaurant on Golden Gateway Center.

Villa Roma Hotel really strives to please the public. Its popular demand, the Ken Fisher Club has been extended indefinitely. The restaurant is now closed.

The Costa Brava continues Art Polizzi, has now introduced a recipe that is a specialty at his Costa Brava restaurant — toasted ravioli, beef, fried and garnished with Parmesan cheese.

The Holiday Inn-Pleasanton's Wharf features food which, talented young pianist, Tuesday through Saturday for the black, extra creamy potato chips that

Ray Hastings At Playbox

Richard Chin's Catfish House on Grant is one of Chinatown's oldest and best restaurants. A busy spot with huge picture windows, the menu has an elaborate array of entrees and special dishes.

Glenn and Bea Hurdle, visitors from El Paso, recently dined at the Gold Miner.

Joe Paoli has decorated

Presiding Superior Judge Carl H. Allen, accompanied by E. J. Terry (left) and Carl Jr. and wife Catherine, is shown here being re-elected to another two-year term on the superior bench. Allen, 65, graduated from Golden Gate College right school and was admitted to the bar in 1932. He was appointed to the superior bench by Governor Brown in 1960 and won reelection without opposition in 1968. Governor Warren named him a municipal judge in August, 1949.

Relection Tie for Allen

Chavez Will Battle S.F. Boycott Ban

United Farm Workers Organizing Committee leader Cesar Chavez today planned to fight against federal court action which seeks to ban secondary boycotts are illegal.

Chain Seeks OK to Build Hotel Here

The Howard Johnson chain is superheated by reports that many San Francisco hotels are being built in a hot market.

Pandas Here About April 1

WASHINGTON — (UPI) Two giant pandas — China's first gift to the United States — will arrive in the United States around April 1.

Girls' Nude Body Identified in Santa Rosa

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (UPI) — The nude body of a teen-age girl, found garroted to death Sunday in an isolated area about 10 miles east of Santa Rosa, has been identified as that of a local college student.

Candidate Files

Edwin S. Anderson, 47, of Millerton, an aviator, today filed his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the Assembly's 27th District in San Mateo County.

A Land Rush for S.F. Book Lovers

Some book buyers may be content to puff their pipes in the library but a more aggressive brand of bibliophile turned out last night for the preview of the Friends of the Library's eighth annual book sale.

Objections to Musk Ox Deal

By Jerry Blisker
Chairman Maa's musk oxen — the San Francisco Zoo is giving a major gift to a zoo in a good deal, panda or no.

Pandas Here About April 1

WASHINGTON — (UPI) Two giant pandas — China's first gift to the United States — will arrive in the United States around April 1.

Chain Seeks OK to Build Hotel Here

The Howard Johnson chain is superheated by reports that many San Francisco hotels are being built in a hot market.

Pandas Here About April 1

WASHINGTON — (UPI) Two giant pandas — China's first gift to the United States — will arrive in the United States around April 1.

A collection of various advertisements for restaurants and businesses, including 'Showboat', 'The Mexican Restaurant', 'The Fairmont', 'Lobster Tail', 'Ravazza's Steam Clams', 'Frene Jacques', 'Las Bovedas', 'T. Auberge', 'Prime Rib Inn', 'The Bullfighter Inn', and 'Dorothy Campbell's Place for Steak and Prime Rib'.