

Astronauts Back on Earth

Cloudy
REDWOOD EMPIRE - Cloudy to light, low clearing variable winds 15 to 25 mph. Extended forecast mostly fair. Highs and lows: Ukiah 60 and 40. Santa Rosa 64 and 42. (Weather Service, 5:15 p.m.)

THE PRESS DEMOCRAT

The Redwood Empire's Leading Newspaper
SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA - The City Designated for Living - THURSDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 27, 1972
HOME 10 cents

Muskie Quits All Primaries

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. George S. McGovern of the Kansas-Missouri caucus, announced today that he was withdrawing from the remaining Democratic presidential primaries. McGovern, who was still available for nomination as the Democratic nominee, was expected to announce his withdrawal from the political arena, near the close of the primary season. McGovern's withdrawal was announced in a letter to the editor of the New York Times. McGovern said he was withdrawing from the political arena because he was not receiving the support he needed to win the presidency. McGovern said he was withdrawing from the political arena because he was not receiving the support he needed to win the presidency.

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Apollo 16's astronauts landed in the Pacific today, carrying a treasure of 245 pounds of rocks and predicting that the next to last U.S. moon adventure would unlock still more of the lunar secrets.

Nixon Warns Reds; Viet Blitz Goes On

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon today warned that the United States would not tolerate a communist takeover of North Vietnam. Nixon said that the United States would not tolerate a communist takeover of North Vietnam. Nixon said that the United States would not tolerate a communist takeover of North Vietnam. Nixon said that the United States would not tolerate a communist takeover of North Vietnam.

Pair Held In Chase

By Staff Correspondent
PELHAM (UPI)—Police officers charged with today at least one high speed chase on Highway 101 today. The chase involved a white Ford Mustang and a police car. The chase ended in a crash on Highway 101 near Pelham.

HIGH SCHOOL journalists from Pelham to Fort Bragg arrived at Santa Rosa Junior College early today for the 23rd annual SRJC-Press Democrat High School Journalism Contest. They registered, heard a keynote talk by Julius and Ethel Rosenberg on Opportunities in Journalism, joined in workshop discussions, then waited for an Awards Luncheon and results of writing competition. Fifteen high schools were represented.

Paris Talks Resume, But No Progress

PARIS (UPI)—The Paris talks today resumed after a two-day break. The talks were held between representatives of the United States and North Vietnam. The talks were held between representatives of the United States and North Vietnam.

Reds Attack Quang Tri

SAIGON (UPI)—The North Vietnamese army today launched a major attack on Quang Tri province. The attack was a surprise and caught the South Vietnamese forces off guard. The North Vietnamese army today launched a major attack on Quang Tri province.

Ford Trims Auto Prices

DETROIT (UPI)—Ford Motor Co. reported today that it had lowered prices on its cars and trucks. Ford said that it had lowered prices on its cars and trucks. Ford said that it had lowered prices on its cars and trucks.

Kleindienst Concedes He 'Probably' Discussed ITT

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Richard M. Kleindienst, former U.S. attorney general, today conceded that he had probably discussed the ITT case with President Nixon. Kleindienst said that he had probably discussed the ITT case with President Nixon. Kleindienst said that he had probably discussed the ITT case with President Nixon.

Women - Their Rights and Roles

By CAROL LUND
At the same time a part of the women's rights movement is the fight for equal pay for equal work. The fight for equal pay for equal work is a major part of the women's rights movement.

Women - Their Rights and Roles

At the same time a part of the women's rights movement is the fight for equal pay for equal work. The fight for equal pay for equal work is a major part of the women's rights movement.

CHINA PING PONG TEAM Stopover in Napa Valley

NAPA (UPI)—The Chinese ping pong team today made a stopover in Napa Valley. The team was on its way to San Francisco. The team was on its way to San Francisco.

Hitchhiking SRJC Coed Is Missing

A 19-year-old Santa Rosa Junior College coed today was missing after hitchhiking from Santa Rosa to Ukiah. The coed was last seen in Santa Rosa. The coed was last seen in Santa Rosa.

Female Hitchhikers And The Pain of Kim's Mother

Hundreds of people, many of whom are young girls, today are hitchhiking across the country. The hitchhikers are looking for work and a better life. The hitchhikers are looking for work and a better life.

Many SR Stores Open Until 9 Tonight

Many Santa Rosa stores today are open until 9 p.m. tonight. The stores are open to accommodate the large number of shoppers. The stores are open to accommodate the large number of shoppers.

Index

ANDERSON	4
ANTROGUE	17
BETHEL	17
BIRKBECK	17
BRIDGES	17
CLARK	17
COMBS	17
COOPER	17
DUFFY	17
FRANK	17
GARRETT	17
LANDERS	17
MASTERS	17
PORTS	17
SUTHERLAND	17
WALTON	17
WOLFE	17
1972 YEAR - 50, 101	