Ironically, it is almost certain to regain most of the popular appeal of Reagan's tax limitation initiative which will be on a special November election ballot. The rolling back of the sales tax cut in the bill supersedes a one-time 20% reduction proposed in the governor's initiative.

Only Two in Opposition
The Assembly vote on the bill was 13 to 2 with only Bagley and Assemblyman Frank Murphy (R-Santa Ana) opposing the measure. Murphy said he is taking some of the wind-out of the sales tax piece of the current "roll-back" from the Reagan initiative.

which will be distributed at post offices, note the mandatory price per gallon and the octane level of the gasoline. The stickers will not be ready for distribution until late August, the official spokesman said.

GIRLS' DEATHS

The last body found was that of Carolyn N. Davis, 15, who apparently was a runaway from her Anderson, Calif., home. Her body was found July 11 in the same spot where the bodies of the Weber and Sterling girls were discovered.

First Body Discovered
The first girl to be found was Kim Wendy Allen, 19, Santa Rosa, whose body was found on a secluded country road 12 miles east of her home on March 5, 1972. She had been strangled and raped. She was last seen hitchhiking from neighboring Marin County.
