Possible Museum

The Yolo County Jail, which was abandoned 45 years ago, is being considered as the location for a county museum. A county museum advisory committee is studying the case involved. See Photo

Butte Aide Will Run For Auditor Post

OROVILLE — William Lawrence, 54, assistant Butte County auditor, has announced that he will actively seek appointment to the position of county auditor in the fall year of 1975. Lawrence, who has worked for the county since 1958, also will seek election to the fall four-year term in the June 3 primary election. In requesting the office last week, Lawrence already has been named by the Board of Supervisors to replace him. The supervisors are expected to name a replacement within the next three weeks.
