

How they fired Danny Ozark

"We're going to make a change," the general manager said, and Ozark was, in his own words, "stunned." Page 1-F

The Philadelphia Inquirer

Vol. 201, No. 64 Sunday, September 2, 1979 50 CENTS

School for scandal: Rumors rage in Upper Merion

By Julia Cox, Linda Ford and Frederick Conick

Rumors spread by the murder of Upper Merion High School teacher Susan Reiser...

One teacher has been slain, three are suspended from teaching duties, the former principal is in jail — "back to school" has a new meaning.

Rumors that a solo-massacre grievance ring was operating out of the high school and had been working to drive students away...

particular will not be returning to teaching when school begins on Wednesday. Susan Reiser is dead...

class community in Montgomery County. Both parents and students distrust the teachers...

"It's a very, very painful thing. I don't think anyone in the school can say they are emotionally neutral..."

On patrol in Belfast, rifles ready

"This isn't police work, this is war."

By Richard Ben Cramer

BELFAST, Northern Ireland — From the back of a Land Rover...

Inside our jeep, there is only dim, gray light that filters through the little pockmarks of transmittance...

Puerto Rican guardsmen carry an islander from the coast flooded by Hurricane David, one of three storms on the map as of 7:30 a.m. yesterday.

Hurricane pelts Cuba, Fla. alerted

By Roddy Gonzalez

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic — Hurricane David lashed over the Dominican Republic yesterday...

It was a very, very painful thing. I don't think anyone in the school can say they are emotionally neutral...

U.S. weather officials said the storm was moving slowly along the northern coast toward Florida...

The storm was moving slowly along the northern coast toward Florida...

Puerto Rican guardsmen carry an islander from the coast flooded by Hurricane David, one of three storms on the map as of 7:30 a.m. yesterday.

Again the protest mounts: 'Draft beer, not people'

By Howard S. Shapiro

COLUMBIA, Mo. — They walked off from the back of a Land Rover...

It was a number reminiscent of a sort of march of death, that ended soon after two hours after it began Thursday.

This time, instead of diehards, there are newswriters with factual information readily available...

Atkins, a department store owner and one of the speakers at the rally here, said he doesn't want the draft...

Fires rage across Jersey pier area

By Ruth Husak

JERSEY CITY, N.J. — Raging multiple fires swept along a quarter-mile of shoreline abandoned water front piers last night...

Firefighters battle flames, blowing smoke higher than small houses around the main fire.

Pioneer 11 zips safely past rings

By Robert Locke

MADEIRA A COAST TOAST at the region's best cooking schools...

Return (above), as Pioneer closed in on its rings (below)

Pioneer, a bit battered at the rim of its 40-mile-wide through space, soared about 11,000 miles above the planet's yellow clouds...

The craft then continued its orbit behind the planet, which blocked out radio signals for 79 minutes...

Weather & Index section containing a weather forecast for Philadelphia and a list of news items.