

THE SUNDAY OKLAHOMAN

More Than A Million Readers Every Sunday

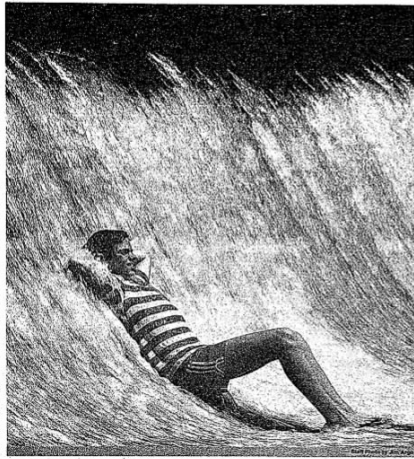

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK

SUNDAY, AUGUST 30, 1987

444 PAGES $1.00

Retirement Lump Sum Bid Rejected

By Paul English The Office of State Finance has stymied requests in their efforts to speed state funds for lump sum payments...

There's more than one way to get a shower, proves Michael Fressonick, 12, as he enjoys a waterfall on the Mountours River in McCurtain County's Edwards Bend State Park in the far southeast part of Oklahoma.

63 Mystery Murders Still Puzzle City Police

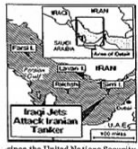

By Ryan Gillette Solving a murder is not always easy. Sometimes all the evidence tells one place and the case 'resolves itself' in a couple of days or a few weeks...

Volunteer's Career Spans History Of County Red Cross Operation

By Ann DePaauze Through two world wars, through the epidemic of 1918, through veterans' programs and the adapted needs of civilians at home, Helen Allison's sewing machine has contributed to whatever effort was under way...

Iran Vows Revenge For Iraqi Attacks

MANAMA, Bahrain (AP) — In a just blasted Iranian oil installation in the Persian Gulf on Saturday, and Iran vows revenge, in the first major step-up of the war in the gulf since U.S. warships began escort operations in mid-July...

Iran Vows Revenge For Iraqi Attacks

Elmore City Embroiled In Squabble

By Kim Alyce Marks ELMORE CITY — The last city council meeting held here was supposed to be the last of a combustible conglomeration of angry citizens and politicians...

Inside Stories

- The Weather Bringing Home Gold Editorial 327,427 Paid Circulation Last Sunday

Aquino Tougher Than Expected Behind Prayers, Tears, a Strong Leader

MANILA, Philippines — When the revolution that swept her to the Philippine presidency broke out in February 1986, Corason Aquino sought refuge in a convent and prayed...

Elmore City Embroiled In Squabble (continued) But, to the surprise of those in attendance, the meeting was routine and adjourned after only 10 minutes...

But, to the surprise of those in attendance, the meeting was routine and adjourned after only 10 minutes. As the crowd scattered, a small, but vocal group rallied around...