Army

The new developments mark the latest Army attempts to unravel a sweeping special operations scandal that already has led to accusations against more than 500 personnel, officials said.

Vote

Continued from A1. In the town of West Point, voters will choose from two candidates for an unexpired council term and reelect four supposed incumbents.

Ships

Continued from A1. One reason, officers say, is that their long-range missiles and defensive weapons were not suitable for the confines of the Gulf.

When they returned to service in the late 1970s, the buy-looking, 1,700-ton Perry-class frigates were much criticized as inadequate for their intended role.
