

A2 THURSDAY, MAY 10, 2001 THE DAILY NEWS, LONGVIEW, WASH.

Pacific Northwest News

Weyco: Lengthy strike could add to economic burden

From Page A1
Weyco workers have been on strike since the company's decision to lay off 100 workers...

00 Longview aluminum workers, said regional economist Scott Fiala...

South agreed. "If the company has the ability to restructure our source our work, then our union membership goes down."

Kalama: Fines administered under unique agreement

From Page A1
In the latest fine, reported Wednesday, ecologist charged BP Goodrich $10,000...

ed with sodium benzoate, a food preservative ingredient, escaped while workers repaired a spill...

On Sunday, less than a gallon of chemicals that form a "plaster," used to make plastic eating utensils...

In a telephone decision, the council gave the thumbs-down to downtown gathering places for more than 50 people...

On March 20, water contaminant "The Fumest, Good-Matured Biscuits, Even Waffles..."

LONGVIEW STAGEWORKS Nansense by Dan Goggin April 27 - May 13

Locke stresses need for education funds

By Paul O'neary
The budget two years ago to help reduce class sizes in the state schools...

ers locked in negotiating rooms holding for jobs of money and spending in kind...

Session's half gone, but work is 100 percent undone

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Senate, burned through its regular 15-week session without passing those essential laws...

House Co-Majority Leader Iain Lowrie, D-Houston...

BRIEFS

City Council to consider approval for neglected Tacoma girl
Body found in Kansas City may be missing Tacoma girl

Charges dropped against trooper in alleged assault
Pipeline breaks near Renton during water test

Charges dropped against trooper in alleged assault
Pipeline breaks near Renton during water test

Mother's Luncheon at Monticello Park Friday May 11th at Noon

NOW YOU CAN CHILD-PROOF THE VERY AIR YOUR CHILD BREATHESE.