This time of thanksgiving, he said, is where people give back for the blessings they have received. "The notion of giving for what you receive is found in all cultures." Severance said. "The idea is the more you	for anything and everything. One positive action is like a tripple or a wave. I believe there is a great spiritual change when people express deep gratitude." Mayor Harry Kim has wit- nessed thankful hearts in action many times during his	al, which our gain vertexis upon each other and every- thing we do reflects upon cach other." Keala Thompson, senior pastor at Honokaa Seventh- day Adventis church, said this culture's drive to have more and more things doesn't give people the time to stop	and take a hait of a run step oack and take a look at things. It's not about materialism, it's about people. Every life does- count. We need to show that we care. We need to be grate- ful for all things. I know how lucky I am. I am so very blessed."
