

Brezhnev: Berlin Talks Progressing

BERLIN (AP) — Soviet Gov. Leonid Brezhnev said Wednesday that the Berlin talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Murder

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Continued
Kroning told the East German newspaper Communist party congress.

At the time of the press conference, Brezhnev said that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Editors Confer
Editors of the New York Times confer on Wednesday in New York City.

NDCC Asks End To War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Democratic Council (NDCC) today urged President Nixon to end the Vietnam war immediately.

Buy Tougher Bumper Safety Regulations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite the fact that the regulations are tougher than those currently in effect, the Senate Commerce Committee today urged President Nixon to buy tougher bumper safety regulations.

Open Way to Free Winnies in Blast

SAO FRANCISCO (AP) — A bill introduced in the Senate today would open the way to free Winnies in a blast.

Few about a watch had won't have to coddle?

It is a new product, a watch that won't have to coddle.

ZALES
My, how you've changed

Ray Says Limit On School Job Pay 'Foolish'

DES MOINES (AP) — Gov. Robert Ray said Wednesday that a proposed limit on the salary of the state superintendent of public instruction is "foolish."

Senate Passes Road Use Tax Transfer Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today passed a bill to transfer the road use tax from the state to the federal government.

Times

Continued
The newspaper reported that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Young Body Moved From Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The body of a young man who was killed in a car crash near Lexington, Ky., was moved from Lexington to New York.

Vienna

Continued
The newspaper reported that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Daily Record

The Weather
WATERLOO — Clear, partly cloudy Wednesday with a chance of scattered showers Thursday.

Deaths
Continued
The newspaper reported that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.

Events

Continued
The newspaper reported that the talks are progressing and that the agreement reached is a "substantial step" toward a final settlement of the Berlin question.