

Where to Find It: Comics 13 TV, Radio 4-5 Editorials 14 Weather 4-5 Markets 16 Women 31

The Des Moines Register

The Newspaper Iowa Depends Upon

Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday Morning, June 17, 1971—96 Pages—Two Sections

Published 1971, The Des Moines Register and Tribune Company

Price 10 Cents

SENATE REJECTS WARRIOR OFF

HOUSE VOTES $5,000 BOOST IN RAY'S PAY

Governor Says He Doesn't Want It

By Richard Dusk The Iowa House Wednesday approved a bill granting Gov. Robert Ray a salary increase from $100,000 to $105,000 a year...

Where Girl's Body Was Found

Four passing youths point to the spot along a Bremer County gravel road near an abandoned creek about three miles west of Des Moines where the nearly nude body of Valerie Klenowsky, 16, of Waverly, was found Tuesday morning...

VOLE TO OPEN NEGOTIATIONS TO BUY WOODS

Conservation Unit To Offer $850,000

By Charles Halperin The Polk County Conservation Unit Wednesday night in open negotiation with the owners on a 10-acre wooded area south of West Des Moines...

'Employment Crisis' At Polk Jail

Transfer of Alcoholics Deprives Facility of Work Crews

By James O'Hara The Polk County Jail Wednesday night is in a "crisis" because of the transfer of alcoholics to the new rehabilitation center at Fort Des Moines...

NIXON WINS A VICTORY ON VIET DEADLINE

McGovern-Hatfield Plan Defeated

By James Riser The Senate Wednesday voted 69-29 to reject the McGovern-Hatfield amendment to the Vietnam War Extension Act...

Agree to Discuss Curfew; Greenwood Protest Cools

About 100 young curfew protesters in and near Greenwood Park were arrested and the death of a motorcycle rider who struck the chain-link fence at the park entrance early Tuesday morning...

PICNIC STROLL -- THEN DEATH

By Jack Haveland The picnic strolled on Wednesday afternoon at Greenwood Park in Des Moines, Iowa, but it ended in tragedy when a 17-year-old girl was struck and killed by a motorcycle rider...

Senate Raises State Beer Tax

The Iowa Senate passed a bill Wednesday to increase the state beer tax by two cents a gallon...

It's a Habit: Boy Saves 4

By Charles Halperin A 12-year-old boy in Des Moines saved a 2-year-old boy from drowning in Lake Okoboji Wednesday afternoon...

New Effort To Recover War Papers

How New York Times secretly prepared history of American Vietnam involvement: PAGE 8

Falls in Tangled Clutes, She's 'Glad to Be Alive'

By Nick Landwehr A 30-year-old secretary who fell 1200 feet in an extremely hard landing Sunday here when both of her legs were broken in open surgery Wednesday...

D.M. Has More Steady Weather

Des Moines' steady weather occupied Wednesday as much as the sun. High temperatures ranged from 82 to 90 degrees...

Potomac Fever

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The office critic says a dollar that now that the Potomac has been heated off, it will be a reservation...

Signs Liquor Revamp Bill

Gov. Ray signs bill to reorganize Liquor Commission and Senate passes bill to reorganize Department of Social Agency...

Workington to Preferred Risk

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Iowa State Insurance Commissioner John L. Worthington will join Preferred Risk Mutual...

Nixon Statement on Drug Plan Today

WASHINGTON, D.C. (REG) — President Nixon will make a personal statement today to dramatize the importance of a massive federal effort against narcotics addiction...

Warrior Off

The Senate Wednesday voted 69-29 to reject the McGovern-Hatfield amendment to the Vietnam War Extension Act...

Conservation Unit

The Polk County Conservation Unit Wednesday night in open negotiation with the owners on a 10-acre wooded area south of West Des Moines...

Employment Crisis

The Polk County Jail Wednesday night is in a "crisis" because of the transfer of alcoholics to the new rehabilitation center at Fort Des Moines...

Nixon Wins

The Senate Wednesday voted 69-29 to reject the McGovern-Hatfield amendment to the Vietnam War Extension Act...

Where Girl's Body Was Found

Four passing youths point to the spot along a Bremer County gravel road near an abandoned creek about three miles west of Des Moines where the nearly nude body of Valerie Klenowsky, 16, of Waverly, was found Tuesday morning...

Picnic Stroll -- Then Death

The picnic strolled on Wednesday afternoon at Greenwood Park in Des Moines, Iowa, but it ended in tragedy when a 17-year-old girl was struck and killed by a motorcycle rider...

Senate Raises State Beer Tax

The Iowa Senate passed a bill Wednesday to increase the state beer tax by two cents a gallon...

It's a Habit: Boy Saves 4

A 12-year-old boy in Des Moines saved a 2-year-old boy from drowning in Lake Okoboji Wednesday afternoon...

New Effort To Recover War Papers

How New York Times secretly prepared history of American Vietnam involvement: PAGE 8