

The Nashua Reporter

Phone 435-4151 With Your News Items Sell It With a Want Ad And Weekly Nashua Post
Volume 17, No. 48 Nashua, Iowa, Wednesday, March 24, 1976 Subscriptions: $3.00 Per Year in This Area; $3.00 Elsewhere

Sinrams Selling Store

Robert and Nedra (Troy) Sinrams have sold their Pool Center, effective on March 23 to Jerry H. Parker, now of Decatur.

Herbert Parker and Mrs. Edna Parker, who operated the store in the New City on account carried by the various Pacific Island and other stores, and after 1974, and now in the New City.

He retired a year and a half ago as a Computer Management Specialist in the Army Computer Center at Huntsville, Ala.

He and his wife, Edna, have four children, three of them still at home. The fourth, son Mike, is in the army stationed in Germany.

Response Good to Date— Volunteers Selling Experimental Asso. Stock in Area

A DRIVE IS UNDER way in Nashua and Floyd counties to sell stock of membership in the Northeast Iowa Experimental Association, which was the Iowa Experimental farm southeast of Nashua.

Both Chickasaw and Floyd have been running tables in the county since the drive to March 18 for instance, Chickasaw had only 47 members and Floyd had 118.

Kenyon Leichman of New Hampton and Milton Pratz of Nashua are currently canvassing in Bradford, Chickasaw and Rockland townships and report a good response to date.

In event you are missed, contact either Pratz or Leichman.

28 Join CB Club; Adopt Name of "Tall Corn Talkers"

Twenty-eight members have joined their dues in the new Citizens' Band radio club, which has adopted the name of "The Tall Corn Talkers."

The club met Sunday afternoon at the VFW hall, Tom Bernhart, Chickasaw, county Civil Director, presided and the board of directors was elected.

There were two directors elected from each of the 25 counties in the association, including Albert Demer of New Hampton.

Four board members were elected Sunday: Tom Dittson and Dick Jung for two year terms and Dick Balderson and Paul Hansmann for one-year terms.

Weather

SPRING ARRIVED Saturday, but it wasn't the kind of a warm, sunny day that we had been expecting in week prior Saturday was a partly cloudy day with a high of 58 and a low of 44.

Weather Sunday and Monday was almost a repeat of that which prevailed the 16th and 17th. The 16th brought a range of 17 to 24 and cold winds on a clear day.

No Parade on 4th, But Fireworks to Be Night Feature

Because July 4 falls on a Sunday, a morning parade originally planned will not be held, Mrs. Virginia Nelson, Nashua Bicentennial chairman, announced this week.

There will be activity in Nashua during the day, however, beginning with check wagon races in the afternoon and climaxed with a fireworks display over Cedar Lake at night, set on by the Jaycees.

M. B. Norman Science Fair Rites Pending Winners to Go To Fayette Show

Services are pending at the Cherokee Funeral Home in Nashua for Milton B. Norman, 85, 1619 10th St., retired Illinois Central depot agent, who died in his sleep during the night Monday, Mrs. Norman found him when she went to awaken him Tuesday morning.

MAYOR'S SIGNATURE LEADS LOCAL SIGNERS: Mayor Harry Lumley, while Mrs. Virginia Nelson, Nashua Bicentennial chairman, looks on, signed a Declaration of Readiness, which, with other local signatures, will reach Washington, D.C., for the Bicentennial celebration in July.

Signatures from Nashua and other communities will be transported via an Iowa wagon train from Des Moines to Decatur. Other units will proceed from there. Elaborate ceremonies will be held in Des Moines April 6 to launch the ride, and the caravan will arrive on the 7th, due to reach Decatur on the 10th.

Those assisting with the drive in Floyd county include Leo Risdon, Roger Sautter and Harry Howe in St. Charles township; Ray Jandt, Earl Bergmann and David Gerken in Havana and Dan Hook and Paul Ritter in Cedar Lake.

THE ASSOCIATION needs a good lot of at a cost of $2000. It will be loaned to the State University as a research station. The University will take over all financial responsibility for all improvements, located at night, set on by the Jaycees.

Julie Benning Laid To Rest as Search For Abductor Holds

The Pleasant Valley Church of Christ was filled to overflowing Sunday afternoon by those attending a Memorial Service for Julie Benning, daughter of the Lowell Benning, Communist services for the young girl had been held at 2:30 in the church cemetery, but half an hour before the Memorial Service.

Julia Ann Benning, daughter of Lowell and Helen Benning, was born in Decatur, Iowa, in 1956. She attended Pleasant Valley School, where she was interested in creative writing, chess, and drama. She was a member of the Pleasant Valley Church of Christ.

Reports from Sick and Injured

Mrs. Nav (Becky) Pouse underwent surgery on her right ankle Monday at Methodist hospital in Rochester. The bone was found to be broken in three places.

Mrs. Ted Siglow was released March 22 from Allen Memorial hospital at Waterloo, following surgery.

Shamelle Mann, daughter of the Rev. Mrs. Stanley Mann of Horton, was admitted to Scott hospital in Cedar Falls for observation. She had been ill for a couple of weeks with a cold and flu.

Mrs. Clyde County of Shell hospital for treatment of a back condition. She was placed in traction and will receive therapy. Her daughters are staying with their grandparents, the Eugene Weitzels of Plainfield.

Craig Campbell was expected to return home Thursday or Wednesday from St. Mary's hospital in Rochester, where he underwent surgery, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Olson remains in the St. Charles County in New Hampton, where she was hospitalized for a couple of days and is expected to be discharged today.

Mrs. Lynn Edna Lourey, a 63-year-old woman, was hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital in New Hampton, where she underwent surgery on her hand. She is expected to be discharged today.

Mrs. Lynn Edna Lourey, a 63-year-old woman, was hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital in New Hampton, where she underwent surgery on her hand. She is expected to be discharged today.

Mrs. Lynn Edna Lourey, a 63-year-old woman, was hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital in New Hampton, where she underwent surgery on her hand. She is expected to be discharged today.

Mrs. Lynn Edna Lourey, a 63-year-old woman, was hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital in New Hampton, where she underwent surgery on her hand. She is expected to be discharged today.

Mrs. Lynn Edna Lourey, a 63-year-old woman, was hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital in New Hampton, where she underwent surgery on her hand. She is expected to be discharged today.

Mrs. Lynn Edna Lourey, a 63-year-old woman, was hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital in New Hampton, where she underwent surgery on her hand. She is expected to be discharged today.

Mrs. Lynn Edna Lourey, a 63-year-old woman, was hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital in New Hampton, where she underwent surgery on her hand. She is expected to be discharged today.

Mrs. Lynn Edna Lourey, a 63-year-old woman, was hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital in New Hampton, where she underwent surgery on her hand. She is expected to be discharged today.