Bremer plods on with Peak-Benning murder probes

By LANN GREFFITH
and Gene Fisher
WATERLOO—Next week will mark a year since the Waverly community was stunned by the murder of a 28-year-old woman from Knoxville about to start her sophomore year studying journalism at Wartburg College.

for use in both pending cases, he says. The IBCI continues to have an agent assigned to the case.

But Peck did not rule out the possibility. The victim's association with Carolyn has been looked at in the investigation, the sheriff says.
