

On Today's Editorial Page The Midwest Working Paper Editorial Staff Editor Of Free Speech Editorial

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

FINAL 3:30 P.M. New York Stock Pages 28 and 32

OCT. 18, 1977 NO. 287

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1977

15¢

86 Hostages Freed, 3 Hijackers Killed

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18 — A West German rescue team freed 86 hostages and killed three hijackers in a daring rescue operation...

After the failure of the hijacking was announced, those captured West German terrorists announced suicide it was...

WORLD REACTION, an indication of the impact of the hijacking, and a description of the German commandos said that they had been...

Several hijackers were killed in the rescue operation. The West German rescue team...

Two hours took them to a heavily guarded airport building to be released with their families and relatives.

Police and Luftwaffe spokesman said that a full press conference would be held tomorrow.

3 Terrorists Kill Selves In Prison

STUTTGART, West Germany, Oct. 18 (UPI) — Three imprisoned leaders of West Germany's Red Army Faction...

Lowen times said he died in a Stuttgart hospital at 6:45 a.m. It was the first to be found.

Justice authorities did not explain how the deaths occurred, but said they were security precautions to avert...

The three had been held in an "ultra-maximum security" prison area designed especially to hold them.

But a crash airplane of German commuter firm Magnolia crashed the bodies of three of the hijackers, wounded the...

See PRISON, Page 4

EXPLOSION SCENE: The green 1976 Ford Thunderbird (second from bottom) in which a man tentatively identified as Robert C. Jackson was killed by an explosion early today. (Post-Dispatch Photo by James A. Radwicz)

U. S. Will Offer To Store Nuclear Plants' Spent Fuel

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP) — The Federal Government announced today that it would offer to store and dispose of spent nuclear fuel from commercial power plants.

John Abraham, an assistant secretary of Energy James H. Schlesinger, said reporters that the program would be voluntary.

He said that the Government would be asked to store in tanks of water, about a third of the spent fuel...

He said that the Government would be asked to store in tanks of water, about a third of the spent fuel...

He said that the Government would be asked to store in tanks of water, about a third of the spent fuel...

He said that the Government would be asked to store in tanks of water, about a third of the spent fuel...

Auto Blast Kills South County Man

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18 (AP) — A man was killed and a car blown into a ditch by an explosion in a parking lot in South County...

Police found a black sedan in the second floor of the building, one floor below the explosion.

Disenberger said Jackson had lived in the apartment for eight years. He said Jackson was a quiet man who was liked by neighbors.

Disenberger said Jackson normally...

tuesday

local THE EFFECTS OF TEACHER TRANSFERS: Four of the 114 recently transferred St. Louis public school teachers...

national NOMINEE REJECTED: Nuclear engineer Kent Kassen's nomination to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission was rejected...

sports HUGGERS AND HUGGERS RESUME: The World Series continues tonight with the warm and happy Los Angeles Dodgers taking on the marauding and controversial New York Yankees in game six.

business THE MAY CO. changed its goals and outlook after David Babcock took its helm. Second of two articles. Page 1E.

features MR. CLEAN HAS A M.B.E.: Or is it a M? Anyway, they're together on the cover of a Dallas/Forbes issue largely devoted to the art — or science? — of cleaning house. Section C.

FOOTLIGHTS BECKON AT LAST: Elizabeth Cotten at age 84 finally got the show that she, 80's made two records and will appear in concert with Mavis Segar. Page 2F.

Table with 2 columns: Section, Page Number. Includes Business (14E), Challenge (1F), Children's Corner (3E), Classified Advertising (6-12D), Dallas Times (12C), Entertainment (12D), Family (14F), News Report (4A), News Analysis (3B), Opinions (3C), People (4A), St. Louis (1B), Sports (14B), TV Radio (6E).

Shaw's Garden To Build $4,700,000 'Palace'

By CHARLENE FREEST Of the Post-Dispatch Staff Construction of the southern end of Shaw's Garden, a $4,700,000 glass building — unofficially called the 'Crystal Palace' — was announced today by...

The two-level building, with a large, semi-circular atrium in the center, will be used as an education and visitor orientation center. It is being designed by the firm of Skidmore, Oring & Merrill...

The new building will face Shaw Boulevard. It will replace the garden's main gate on Tower Grove. The new building will house a restaurant, auditorium, gift and plant shops, educational facilities and offices and will replace the garden's main gate at 2345 Tower Grove Avenue.

The structure will house a restaurant, auditorium, gift and plant shops, educational facilities and offices and will replace the garden's main gate at 2345 Tower Grove Avenue.

GARDEN'S 'CRYSTAL PALACE': Transparent and opaque glass panels will distinguish a $4,700,000 Education and Visitor Orientation Center planned for Shaw's Garden. The structure will house a restaurant, auditorium, gift and plant shops, educational facilities and offices and will replace the garden's main gate at 2345 Tower Grove Avenue.