

st.louis/monday

ST LOUIS POST-DISPATCH MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1977 SECTION 1, 12C

THE LIGHT FANTASTIC: A solitary figure strolling past the brilliantly lit St. Louis Gateway Convention Center. (Post-Dispatch Photo by Sam Leone)

Battered Women's Group Wants An End To Abuse

By ARRY COON Of the Post-Dispatch Staff
The women identified herself only as Janetta, a 23-year-old mother of two...

The event was sponsored by the St. Louis Abuse Victims Support Project... The women who did not give their names... One woman, who did not give her name...

husband was killed by beating," she says... "I've been asked why you put up with it..." "I've been asked for it. I just loved my husband..."

women and their children, but she also offered job, rent and psychiatric referrals... "But the first step is to give battered women a chance to live."

Teachers May Strike In Riverview Gardens

By CHARLENE FROST Of the Post-Dispatch Staff
The possibility of a strike has been mentioned by a union leader of the Riverview Gardens School District...

Teachers who are required to attend school-related activities at night or on weekends... "I'm not sure if we're going to strike this year..."

County Police Flooded With Tips On Automobile Bomber's Identity

By CHARLENE FROST Of the Post-Dispatch Staff
St. Louis County police are being swamped by telephone calls...

"The person would probably be very much of color, somewhat over 40 years of age... "I've been asked why you put up with it..."

Man Shot To Death In Front Of Tavern

St. Charles, 41, son of 39-year-old Carlotta... Police said the man was shot in the back of the head...

Police said the man was shot in the back of the head... "The man was shot in the back of the head..."

Teachers' Strike

Teachers' strike... "I'm not sure if we're going to strike this year..."

Teachers' strike... "I'm not sure if we're going to strike this year..."

Foosball... Out Of The Pizza Parlor Into The Pro Arena

By LINDA LOCKHART JONES Of the Post-Dispatch Staff
It's a head thing. There's just something about it that when you just play well, and you just go good..."

Steve Simon of Alton was one of the best players in the country... "I'm a really competitive person and this gives me the competition..."

FOOSBALL FANATICS: Spectators crowding around the action at the Schiltz $250,000 World Championship of Foosball. (Post-Dispatch Photo by Karen Eshlow)

Drizzly Weather Just Won't Quit

A sluggish low pressure system... "There's a challenge there that I find with other sport..."

Drizzle and fog were spread over most of Missouri and Illinois this morning... "There's a challenge there that I find with other sport..."