ST. LOUIS BOMBINGS

Confused from First Page checked out more than 100 leads. Police have also held a series of community meetings to help ease the terror that has brought more than 100 calls a day from apartment dwellers afraid to start their cars. The meetings have been well attended. "It's very simple," said Bob Wilson, a community relations officer. "The people want to know what to do to prevent themselves from getting blown up. The trouble is that anything we tell them is not foolproof." Police believe one person is responsible for the bombings. In the first attack, a bomb exploded under the car of Ronald T. Theriot, a 25-year-old engineer. The car was shattered, but he escaped injury. Dr. Bruce Danis, a Detroit psychiatrist who was asked to conduct a seminar for investigators, said he believed the individual was a stable, calculating loner who derived thrills from reading about his exploits. Danis believes the bomber will strike again. Meanwhile, Wilson urged drivers to continue to check for bombs before starting their cars. The sale of car alarms has skyrocketed and some apartments have set up round-the-clock parking lot watches. Hoffmann explained the recommended inspection: "First I look under the car for any packages or loose wires," he said. "Then I check inside the trunk and open the hood, but not before looking for a live wire. Then I'll open the door and check under the floor mats and the dash. If everything is clear, I'll turn the key and cross my fingers." Mrs. Allison said she performed a short, intense prayer.

AID TO ALIENS

Continued from First Page more than 37,000 aliens collected $72.3 million in such payments in 1976. Perry said he would introduce legislation requiring a five-year residence requirement for Supplemental Security Income eligibility and making sponsors promise to support the aliens legally enforceable contracts. Figures from the five states surveyed showed: —In California, 13,027 aliens got $31.6 million. —In Florida, 12,342 got $18.5 million. —In New York, 6,444 got $11.3 million. —In New Jersey, 3,718 got $5.4 million. —In Illinois, 2,380 got $4.5 million.
