Boat Owner Happy About Boat Salvage

WARSAW, Ky. (AP) — The boat he had ordered to be salvaged was found to be in better condition than he had expected, the owner said Tuesday night.

"I'm hoping we can get a good deal on the salvage," he said.

The boat, which he had bought for $20,000, was found in the river last week. While trying to get it back to his dock, it was damaged. He had to have it towed to the dock where it was salvaged.

"I don't know how it got there, but it's in better shape than I thought it would be," he said.

boat was worth $20,000 but was insured for $200,000 half of which was for liability. He said he was claiming the cost of raising the boat against the liability.

"I think I can salvage it now. There's lots of damage but there doesn't appear to be any structural damage to the hull," he said.

"I feel a lot better now," he said.

been known to be piloted the Ohio, Kentucky, Mississippi, Tennessee, Illinois and Arkansas rivers.

He said he was also packed with special tools and equipment.

"As far as I can tell, we had a lot of damage. The windows are gone, the motor quit, was torn away but I think we can salvage it," he said.

He said the boat was sunk in a "corner pocket" between the ice flow and the dam. The boat was in the river for three days.

The car was parked near a room at which 1968 Buick Wildcat registered.

James Elder, special agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said the car had been considered a suspect in Mrs. Foy's death.

"The truth of the matter is, we don't have any suspect," he said, referring to the series of three bombings in St. Louis County that led to her death.

The St. Louis County Sheriff's Office is investigating the bombings.

OKLAHOMA (AP) — Sheriff Bill Wynn said today that a man who was shot and killed in a car bombing in St. Louis last week was a suspect in the bombing.

Wynn said the man was a member of the Black Panther Party and had been in the St. Louis area at the time of the bombing.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal train dispatchers in Tennessee and Kentucky have prompted a federal safety agency to recommend the recall of as many as 30,000 railroad cars for safety inspections.

The National Transportation Safety Board, which is investigating the cause of the crash, said the cars were found to have a defect in the wheels.

Mickey Rooney says he will retire. He said he has decided to stop acting and to spend more time with his family.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mickey Rooney finally calling it quits after 40 years in show business.

Rooney says yes. His agent says no.

Rooney says he is going to bring down the curtain.

Rooney said Tuesday in an interview on NBC's "Tomorrow Show." "As soon as I finish a movie I'm working on now, I'm going to devote all my time to marketing a self-study acting course I've been working on for 15 years."

The Oscar-winning actor could not be reached later for elaboration, but his press agent, Dick Corbett, said it's unlikely Rooney, 57, is assuming plans to stop acting only to change his mind later.
