

PAGE 12-A SUN-DEMOCRAT, PADUCAH, KENTUCKY WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1978

Markets

Table with columns for Market, Change, and Price. Includes sections for Stocks, Livestock, and Grains.

(Continued From Page 1)
Stocks
The Dow Jones Industrial Average rose 1.24 points to 1,019.12.

Oil tax

designed to make domestic oil an expensive as imported oil.
A majority of Senate conferees tentatively agreed Tuesday to support the compromise...

Suspect

Flint had his spleen and parts of his intestines removed in surgery at Baptist General Hospital, and a bullet remained lodged near his spine...

Senate ERA

Lt. Gov. Thelma Stovall was ousted on Tuesday's vote. Before announcing the motion to take it from committee had passed...

Husbands Road crossing site of collision

Edward D. Hamant, 35, of 2865 Champ Drive, received minor injuries late this morning when his small pickup truck was struck by a trailer...

Bomb victim

The victim had given rise to a "read bomb" theory in which the bombings had been planned by the Carter family...

Conductor dies

LA VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Neil Brantley, 67, conductor of the Carter Family Show...

Journalist dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Peter F. Pugh, founder of the New York Daily Conservative...

Grains

Table with columns for Grain, Change, and Price. Lists various grain types and their market values.

Taxpayers' power doesn't want to join the local, state or national education association, he or she doesn't have to. Under the bill proposed...

Quick coal

Blumenthal said today that if the coal strike is over by the end of March, he doesn't expect any significant economic impact because the loss of the economy would be made up quickly.

Quick coal

Blumenthal said today that if the coal strike is over by the end of March, he doesn't expect any significant economic impact because the loss of the economy would be made up quickly.

Large advertisement for Allied Co. featuring various home furnishings like vinyl recliners, bedroom suites, and dining sets with prices and promotional offers.