

Thu., Mar. 9, 1978 Springfield (Mo.) Daily News

AP Wirephoto

Season record
Springfield, Mo. (UPI) — A Missouri record was set Wednesday as the first of a series of heavy rainfalls fell over the state.

In the Midlands
Link in auto bombing sought

PAUCATON, Mo. (UPI) — A Missouri state committee Wednesday sought a link between the auto bombings in St. Louis and the bombing of a building in Kansas City.

Senate asks probe in firing

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The Missouri Senate Wednesday asked a committee to investigate the firing of a Kansas City police chief.

Lignite development is urged

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John M. Smith, secretary of the Arkansas Lignite Council, urged Wednesday the development of lignite to help Arkansas and Louisiana meet the energy crisis.

Mother of five is freed

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP) — A Muskogee mother of five, arrested by an assistant district attorney in Tulsa, has been freed of a charge of killing her husband of 19 years.

Adjutant general overpaid

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Missouri Adjutant General Robert Buehler was overpaid more than $1,000 last year, apparently because of the failure to file a second pay plan with the secretary of state, according to state Auditor Thomas Davis.

$2.3 million cut in MU budget

COLUMBIA (AP) — University of Missouri-Columbia Chancellor Herbert Schickling has without cuts of more than $2.3 million in existing programs moved to the school's budget for fiscal 1979-80.

Senate approves prohibitions in land ownership, product suits

Missouri Legislature

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Prohibitions against foreign ownership of Missouri farms and restrictions on suits for damages for damage from defective products cleared the Missouri Senate Wednesday and were sent to the House.

Butz says farmers' goals would be U.S. disaster

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The current farm crisis is caused by the failure of the farm program of the industry and because it is not being carried out in America's agriculture, former Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz said Wednesday.

Bill opposes utility tax

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — A bill was introduced Wednesday in the Missouri Senate that would prohibit taxes from being collected on utility bills.

Easter at Zales

Advertisement for Zales jewelry featuring Easter-themed items. It includes a list of jewelry pieces with prices, such as 'Give a delicate cross as an expression of traditional Easter sentiment.' and 'Lady Laura TOBI TODD rocky laughter'. The ad also mentions 'Zales The Diamond Store' and 'Springfield, Missouri'.

Way cleared for Senate to study merit system

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The Senate Constitutional Amendments Committee Wednesday cleared the way for the full Senate to consider a merit system for state employees.

Important notice regarding Montgomery Ward "Dollar Day" ad section in today's paper.

On page 4, the oil caulk is incorrectly pictured as "Latex" and on page 14, the welded steel fence is incorrectly pictured as chain link. We regret any inconvenience this may cause.

Small advertisement for Battlefield Mall, featuring the text 'BATTLEFIELD MALL' and 'AMONG GEMERS WARD'.

Large advertisement for Newman's clothing store. It features the text 'Newman's TRUNK SHOWING Friday March 10th 11 'til 8' and 'Informal Modeling'. The ad includes several illustrations of women in various styles of dresses and blouses, along with contact information for the store.