

38 Fort Myers News-Press, Wednesday, November 22, 1978

This may not compute, but it's a novel gift idea

And for only $595

By KAREN BARR News-Press Staff Writer

A 380 computer is the toy that will win your youngster's heart as it glimmers under the tree this Christmas...

keyword with micro-processor, a video unit, a tape recorder to store programs and a power supply...

School

The trip was approved unanimously although Mills said he was concerned over the kind of textbooks used by the students in Americanism vs. Communism classes.

"It bothers me that people are turning trips to communist countries and not to our own nation's capital," Mills said.

Yipes! Stripes! U.S. 41 won't get 'em for a while

By WAYNE MELTON News-Press Staff Writer

Drivers on the newly resurfaced Cleveland Avenue were confounded by a lack of traffic lane stripes on the highway...

Man sought for questioning in Charlotte murder surrenders

By KAREN FELDMAN News-Press Staff Writer

PORT CHARLOTTE — Brian Patrick Kane, wanted for questioning in connection with the Dec. 12 murder of 12-year-old Linda Pavonis in Port Charlotte, surrendered to law enforcement authorities late Tuesday afternoon in Madeira Beach.

Water-saving effort planned

Cap Coral Bureau

A joint effort by a group of condominium residents and the Cape Coral City Council to amend the city's building code could save 200,000 gallons of fresh water daily from use of the city's 75 underground sources.

Stork trips up clown trip

By WAYNE MELTON News-Press Staff Writer

The stork "clowned around" with Toby the Clown Tuesday morning.

"The stork turned out to be a false alarm. Ballantine, employed by the City's Health Dept. Bruce, Circus, said the baby is scheduled to be born Nov. 28.

Schools, banks, businesses, government offices will close

Le County schools, banks, businesses and government offices will close Thursday for Thanksgiving.

Banking institutions will remain open for business Friday, the traditional state Christmas shopping day.

Sanibel Mayor re-elected to her seat on city council

By SUSAN DUFFORD News-Press Staff Writer

Sanibel Mayor Zaida Butler's reelection to her seat on the Sanibel City Council Tuesday was a vote of confidence for the island's city government, according to both the mayor and members of the council.

Water to be off in Mobile Manor park

Water will be off today from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. in Mobile Manor Trailer Park in North Fort Myers because of repairs, according to a spokeswoman for Lee County Utilities.

Man sought for questioning in Charlotte murder surrenders

By KAREN FELDMAN News-Press Staff Writer

PORT CHARLOTTE — Brian Patrick Kane, wanted for questioning in connection with the Dec. 12 murder of 12-year-old Linda Pavonis in Port Charlotte, surrendered to law enforcement authorities late Tuesday afternoon in Madeira Beach.

Water-saving effort planned

Cap Coral Bureau

A joint effort by a group of condominium residents and the Cape Coral City Council to amend the city's building code could save 200,000 gallons of fresh water daily from use of the city's 75 underground sources.

Government offices close for holiday

Local banks and the post offices will be closed Thursday but several regular business hours Friday.

Sanibel lets police chief seek radio grant

The Sanibel City Council Tuesday authorized Police Chief John Butler to apply for a $4,000 federal grant to purchase six portable radios for the Sanibel Police Department.

Stork trips up clown trip

By WAYNE MELTON News-Press Staff Writer

The stork "clowned around" with Toby the Clown Tuesday morning.

"The stork turned out to be a false alarm. Ballantine, employed by the City's Health Dept. Bruce, Circus, said the baby is scheduled to be born Nov. 28.

Schools, banks, businesses, government offices will close

Le County schools, banks, businesses and government offices will close Thursday for Thanksgiving.

Banking institutions will remain open for business Friday, the traditional state Christmas shopping day.

Sanibel Mayor re-elected to her seat on city council

By SUSAN DUFFORD News-Press Staff Writer

Sanibel Mayor Zaida Butler's reelection to her seat on the Sanibel City Council Tuesday was a vote of confidence for the island's city government, according to both the mayor and members of the council.

Water to be off in Mobile Manor park

Water will be off today from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. in Mobile Manor Trailer Park in North Fort Myers because of repairs, according to a spokeswoman for Lee County Utilities.

Man sought for questioning in Charlotte murder surrenders

By KAREN FELDMAN News-Press Staff Writer

PORT CHARLOTTE — Brian Patrick Kane, wanted for questioning in connection with the Dec. 12 murder of 12-year-old Linda Pavonis in Port Charlotte, surrendered to law enforcement authorities late Tuesday afternoon in Madeira Beach.

Water-saving effort planned

Cap Coral Bureau

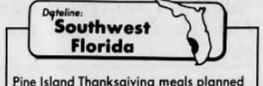

A joint effort by a group of condominium residents and the Cape Coral City Council to amend the city's building code could save 200,000 gallons of fresh water daily from use of the city's 75 underground sources.

Government offices close for holiday

Local banks and the post offices will be closed Thursday but several regular business hours Friday.

Sanibel lets police chief seek radio grant

The Sanibel City Council Tuesday authorized Police Chief John Butler to apply for a $4,000 federal grant to purchase six portable radios for the Sanibel Police Department.

Pine Island Thanksgiving meals planned

Family-style Thanksgiving meals will be served Thursday from 12:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Pine Island Civic Association Building at the corner of State Roads 76 and 78.

Water to be off in Mobile Manor park

Water will be off today from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. in Mobile Manor Trailer Park in North Fort Myers because of repairs, according to a spokeswoman for Lee County Utilities.

Secrets for success' is lecture topic

"Secrets for Success in Any Field" is the topic for the last in the fall series of Talent Bank/P.A. Tina Koppa lectures at Edison Community College.

Kiwans requests to return to Pine Island

Recruiters from the Kiwanis Club of Cape Coral will return to Pine Island today to solicit membership in a new Kiwanis club, according to Charles Brady, the group's president.

Mann leads appropriation subcommittee

Rep. Frank Mann, D-Fort Myers, has been selected as chairman of the House appropriations subcommittee that oversees social services spending and the giant Department of Health and Rehabilitation Services.

Woman: Raped by razor-wielding man

A 23-year-old woman told Fort Myers police a man held a razor to her throat and raped her after he broke into her home in East Fort Myers at 29 a.m. Tuesday.

Sheriff investigating baby's death

PUNTA GORDA — The Charlotte County Sheriff's Department Tuesday said it is investigating the death of a three-month-old baby.

Government offices close for holiday

Local banks and the post offices will be closed Thursday but several regular business hours Friday.

Sanibel lets police chief seek radio grant

The Sanibel City Council Tuesday authorized Police Chief John Butler to apply for a $4,000 federal grant to purchase six portable radios for the Sanibel Police Department.

Rest of partial skeleton is recovered by work crew

By PATI DAVIS News-Press Staff Writer

A county work crew Tuesday recovered the remainder of a partial skeleton found in a muddy canal bank in East Fort Myers last week, and Medical Examiner Wallace M. Greaves said his preliminary examination showed the remains were those of a young adult black woman.

Water-saving effort planned

Cap Coral Bureau

A joint effort by a group of condominium residents and the Cape Coral City Council to amend the city's building code could save 200,000 gallons of fresh water daily from use of the city's 75 underground sources.

Government offices close for holiday

Local banks and the post offices will be closed Thursday but several regular business hours Friday.

Sanibel lets police chief seek radio grant

The Sanibel City Council Tuesday authorized Police Chief John Butler to apply for a $4,000 federal grant to purchase six portable radios for the Sanibel Police Department.