

6A Tue., March 9, 1982 ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

24 MAR 9 1982

Senate GOP Leaders At Odds On Alternative Budget Plan

Compiled From News Services
WASHINGTON — Senate Republicans today were unable to agree on an alternative budget plan to the president's latest proposal.

Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., chairman of the Finance Appropriations Committee, opposed any "budgetary" program that would increase spending for health and education. He said the program would be a "budgetary" program that would increase spending for health and education.

Sen. Dan Rostenkowski, D-Ill., chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, said he would support a budget plan that would increase spending for health and education. He said the program would be a "budgetary" program that would increase spending for health and education.

Sen. Charles Stenholm, R-Okla., chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, said he would support a budget plan that would increase spending for health and education. He said the program would be a "budgetary" program that would increase spending for health and education.

Main Caldwell, victim of the bombing, being lifted into an ambulance after being freed from his car.

Bombing

FROM PAGE ONE
City and county police said Caldwell had no criminal record and was not known to be associated with the people involved in previous car bombings in the St. Louis area.

MAP BY ROBERT BRADLEY

Bombing Victim Well-Liked

By Sally Baily Daily
ST. LOUIS (UPI) — James A. Caldwell, 37, an organized crime leader, was killed in a car bombing in St. Louis Tuesday.

21 Bombing Incidents Recorded Here Since '62

There have been 21 bombings since 1962 involving St. Louis area people. The first was a car bombing in 1962 involving a man named James A. Caldwell. The second was a car bombing in 1963 involving a man named James A. Caldwell. The third was a car bombing in 1964 involving a man named James A. Caldwell.

Auto Shump Hearing

Paul Cavanaugh Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON — Legislative proposals for revisiting the auto industry will be the topic of a congressional hearing Friday in St. Louis.

El Salvador

FROM PAGE ONE
"I believe a cease-fire agreement and peace negotiations." The current proposal for El Salvador is to allow 800 U.S. troops to remain in the country to help with the peace process.

Accusation

FROM PAGE ONE
The report says that the company had been accused of providing false information to the government. The report also says that the company had been accused of providing false information to the government.

Parliament

FROM PAGE ONE
The House of Commons is expected to vote on a bill that would increase the number of members of the House of Commons. The bill would increase the number of members from 630 to 700.

Army General Is Apparent Victor In Guatemalan Presidential Vote

GUATEMALA CITY (AP) — The presidential candidate backed by the army in Guatemalan elections today, Gen. Romeo Lucas, was the apparent victor in the election.

Salvadoran Guerrillas Attacking

Under the War Powers Act as it now stands, Reagan can send advisers to El Salvador for 60 days, and Congress would have to renew the authorization.

U.S. Japan To Discuss Import Quota Removal

TOKYO (UPI) — Japan agreed today to discuss with U.S. representatives a removal of import restrictions on certain farm products.

European Conference To Suspend Sessions

MADRID, Spain (UPI) — Leaders from 12 nations — East and West — agreed to suspend the European security conference until November.

European Conference To Suspend Sessions

MADRID, Spain (UPI) — Leaders from 12 nations — East and West — agreed to suspend the European security conference until November.