

Candidate Corner

Steve Cooper
Democrat for Governor
The political campaign and special interest favoritism typical of Alaska's government in the last three years will not be tolerated in the future," Democratic gubernatorial candidate Steve Cooper says.

Water F. Hicket
Republican for Governor
Water F. Hicket has announced several appointments to his gubernatorial campaign staff. He named state Sen. Jack Coghill of Neenah as his campaign chairman and July Brady, former executive director of Community Health North, as campaign manager.

Kathy Madison, formerly news director for KTVU, television in Anchorage and press officer to former Anchorage Mayor George Bellows, has been appointed press secretary.

Rick Richards
Republican for Governor
Gubernatorial candidate Rick Richards has named a campaign manager and those from the legislature areas who want to be the governor to present themselves to the Alaska people.

Seeking before the Fairbanks Board of Health, Richards noted some debates have been canceled because of the lack of participation. "It's deplorable that the governor, who has refused them and will not come before the people of Alaska to join me in discussing issues important to all of us," he said.

Joe Hayes
Republican for Governor
Republican gubernatorial candidate Joe Hayes has called on Gov. Bill Wooten to veto an $8 million appropriation of surplus permanent fund money which the legislature approved in the final days of the session.

FIVE REASONS YOU CAN BANK ON ALASKA FEDERAL

Good banking is more than piggy banks and checking accounts, and savvy consumers appreciate subtle distinctions. All Alaska Federal services are structured for simplicity, convenience and high returns. With a full range of credit and loan programs, we combine true full-service banking with the rate sensitivity of a traditional savings association.

- 1. The Winner
Only $300 to open, and no minimum balance for maximum earnings — our interest-bearing checking account really pays. Lots of extras, too, like free money orders, travelers' checks and travel discounts. If you want even more, ask about the Plus Account. It pays money market rates and entitles you to extra earnings on Money Market One, our most popular money market tool.
- 2. VISA
Maybe you never expected your savings bank to offer Visa — but Visa credit and debit accounts are part of our total banking program. Wherever you travel, take SouthEast convenience along.
- 3. Home Improvement Loans
By winter your home could be bigger and warmer, brighter and tighter. Or you might add a garage, a shed, a workshop — even a hot tub. It's your choice with an Alaska Federal Home Improvement Loan. Interest rates are lower now than they've been in years and you can use your equity for collateral. Loans to $50,000 with terms up to 15 years.
- 4. Auto and Boat Loans
Half the fun is getting there — and you've come to the right place if your plans include a car or boat. We offer a full range of fixed and variable rate loan packages, which means there's sure to be one for you.
- 5. Southeastern Hospitality
Count on Alaska Federal for friendly, helpful service — because that's the way we've done things since 1935. Isn't it time you joined the growing Alaska Federal family for the advantages of experience and the convenience of full-service banking?

YOU HAVE A FRIEND IN THE BANKING BUSINESS.
