Consus I I	gures On	Connor	WorkersE	10
Births is R	eleased	VALDEZ (AP) - About 150 cappen	Workers Ev	icted from	Tents
WASHINGTON (AP) - More than	The increase is and of much at at a	VALDEZ (AP) — About 150 cannery workers living in a tent city in Valden have been served eviction notices. Valdez police showed up at the makeshift community on a hill behind Nutlibut Meeting The	"This was the first time we'd heard about these things," Warleski said. The 22-year-old cantery worker from Eau Claire, Wis, said most of the tent city residents are college activities.	have any public transportation to get them back and forth from their jobs to the campground, besid. Warlosid said even if the workers could surmount the transportation problems, the campground is nearly full and certainly couldn't hold all the benche beine switched	"We'll just have to adapt," h Police Chief Patrick She return a reporter's call to di half of all block babies in the United States are burn to out-of-wedlock mothers, according to a new Census Bureau study that found unmarried	and increase in out-of-wedlock births has followed a general lessening of the stigma attached to illegitimate children by nociety, as well as a change in at- litude among young young not	value: poince showed up at the makeshift community on a hill behind Nautilus Marine Tuesday evening and told the residents they would have to strike their tents within 24 hours, ac- cording to one who was living there.	Eau Claire, Wis., said most of the tent city residents acc-college students	Warloski said even if the workers could surmount the transportation	situation.
Bureau study that found unmarried women accounted for nearly 18 percent	by nociety, as well as a change in at- titude among young women, said Martha R. Burt of the Urban Institute,	told the residents they would have to strike their tents within 24 hours, and	city residents acc college students working at the campries to earn next fall's tuition.	problems, the campground is nearly full and certainly couldn't hold all the	Similar tent cities are a sight — and often a source troversy — in cannery throughout the state. Most communities have little st
of all births.	a private research organization.	cording to one who was living there.	fall's tuition. He said the eviction notices leave them with few alternatives. The	I the order stands, most of the propie being evicted. If the order stands, most of the workers either will have to guit and go home or perhaps move on to similar jobs in Cordova, he said.	throughout the state Man
women has been rising in recent years, from 14 percent nationally in 1980, despite the increased availability of birth control products and abortion.	a private research organization. "Block torenagers perceive grouts" tolerance for out-of-wedlock child- bearing in their neighborhood than white youth, and are more accepting of premarial social activity." said authors Kristin A. Moore, Margaret C. Simms and Charles L. Bedat, "for black women, the meetings, the black women, the meetings."	The police said they had a number of complaints about sanitation, noise and	them with few alternatives. The nearest established campground is 7 miles away, Warloski said. Because most of the	workers either will have to quit and go home or perhaps move on to similar	housing for the seasonal work despite the increased availability of birth control products and abortion.	white youth, and are more accepting of premarital sexual activity " raid	complaints about sanitation, noise and a communal patio shelter that didn't meet city bailding codes, said Paul Warloski.	Because most of them are from somewhere else and working at tem- porary jobs, few of the cannery workers have automobiles and Valdez doesn't	Jobs in Cordova, he said. Some may try to camp on public land along a creek about 5 miles from town,	towns, like Homer, have trie the problem by charging carr authors Kristin A. Moore, Margaret C. Simms and Charles L. Betaey.	Warloski,	have automobiles and Valdez doesn't	Warloski said.	towns, nice Homer, have trie the problem by charging can and providing some amen portable tailets and running w common in the 16-24 age group, ac- counting for nearly three-fourths of babies born to black women in that category, and more than one in five among while women, said the study minemed Weinender.	Ms. Simms added that "for black women, the marriage rate is going	Pool Not :-	SL:CC D. C	T
category, and more than one in five among white women, said the study released Wednesday.	women, the marriage rate is going women, the marriage rate is going down faster than the birth rate. So one factor is just the lower likelihood of getting married. Certainly, among teens, whiles are still much more likely to eilther be married at time of pregnancy or to marry before child is born."	I CEI NOU IN	Skiff Before receiped weenesday.	getting married. Certainly, among toens, whites are still much more likely	KETCHIKAN (AP) - A commercial fisherman testified Webserday that	Investor, was not the man he saw get into a skiff shortly before the seiner was set afire. Joseph Weyhmiller told the Ket-	chikan Superior Court Jury hearing the	pleaded innocent, at one tim
The bureau studied births in the 12 trionths ending in June 1983. Among its findings:	to either be married at time of pregnancy or to marry before child is	John Kenneth Peel, accused of killing eight people aboard the fishing yessel	set afire.	chikan Superior Court Jury hearing the case against Peel that he was unloading his fishing vessel at the Craig cold storage dock when he noticed the Investor's seine skiff at a nearby float.	for Caulthurst. It is to be an Prosecutors claim the 3 Weyhmiller's statements do investor oxiside Craig on Sept Netchikan District Attor Anne Henry said Wey etilmate Wedneday of the t hortmend to 45 minutes hefer inhortmend to 45 minutes hefer inhortmend to 45 minutes hefer inhortmend to 45 minutes hefer inhortmend to 45 minutes hefer hortmend to 45 minutes hefer he previously had said it was before the fire exploded int plane.
- Out of wordlash bistle set t too	While is seen to t	ture to the second second	such weytentier told the Ket-	investor's seine skill at a nearby float.	Weyhmiller's statements d out Pcel as the man who t
eluding 11.7 percent for whites and 54.9 percent for blacks.	marriage, young people are not	CAP Offic	M 11	He remembered the man who got into it as middle-aged, native and stocky. He watched the dark-haired man about a half-minute Weathenillae raid.	Investor outside Craig on Sep Ketchikan District Attor
-In: the 18-24 group, out-of-wedlock -In: the 18-24 group, out-of-wedlock births were 31.1 percent overall, 20.2 percent for white women and 74.5 percent for blacks. -Some 48 percent of zew. mothers had returned to the labor force within a more set.	more, she said in a telephone interview.	CAF OID	ers Mull	He watched the dark-haired man about a half-minute, Weyhmiller said	estimate Wednesday of the percent for white women and 74.5 percent for blacks.	have shown that an expectant young woman will often take a serious look at the father of her child and consider whether marriage is a good idea, whether he can support a family and what the future would be like.	Ousting C	ommander	We wanted the dark raired man about a half-minute. Weyhmiller said. Weyhmiller said he could not remember whether the man drove the skiff away, but he recalled seeing the distinctive 22-foot boat shortly after the investor use discussed of the same second	shortened to 45 minutes hefo
-Some 48 percent of new mothers had returned to the labor force within a	the father of her child and consider whether marriage is a good idea	ousingu	ommanuer	skiff away, but he recalled seeing the distinctive 22-feet beat shortly after the	before the fire exploded in plume.
year, up from 38 percent in 1980 and 31 percent in 1976. College graduates were	whether he can support a family and what the future would be like.	ANCHORAGE (AP) Some current and former Alaska Civil Air Patrol	officer in Fairbanks last week. The	from Craig. The small craft again was	The testimony does not Peel was not in the skiff wh year, up for on 3b percent in 1980 and 31 percent in 1976. College graduates were 1 ice as likely to have gone back to sork as women who had not completed high school.	The girl may then decide that the father is not a good candidate for	ANCHORAGE (AP) — Some current and former Alaska Civil Air Patrol efficient plan tomet today with their registerial commander to call for registerial commander. The Rescue group's Maska commander. The Alaska commander. Col. Russel J. Adderson, said Tuesday he so- courages such a meeting if some courages such a meeting if some reactions. He such this placities and from the group's tight budget and related insuce.	officer in Fairbanks last week. The officer said he and others were con- cerned about Anderson's leadership of the CAP's Alaska wing. Berry said	skill away, but he recalled seeing the distinctive 25 foot bas thorty after he lowestor was discovered after a mile from Craig. The small craft again was tied up at the cold storage float, he said. Pee's lawyers say Weyhmiller's testimony counters prosecution con- tentions that one man - Pee - killed the vessel's akipper, Mark Ceuitharst, his wife. Irene, heir two childen, and four crow members. Ped, who has	before the fire exploded in plane. The testimony does not Peel was not in the skiff wh witness saw it approa- fineator, Henry said. "It's significant evidenc person positively stated it o John Peel who was in the fin- ds minutes to two hours fire," Weidner said.
	marriage, she said.	replacing the volunteer search-and- rescue group's Alaska commander.	Berry said he agreed tentatively to meet with disgrantlad machine	tentions that one man - Peel - killed	"It's significant evidence person positively stated it c
Woman to	be Kept Alive	The Alaska communder, Col. Russel J. Anderson, said Tuesday he en-	Thursday, when he planned to be in Anchorage to attend a quarteria	his wife, Irene, their two children, and four crew members. Peel who has	John Peel who was in the In 45 minutes to two hours be kept Anve	courages such a meeting if some members differ with his policies and	commanders' meeting. Mel Fry, speaking for several former	Oleverne of the second
To Give Fe	tus a Chance	from the group's tight budget and	and outgoing CAP officers, said the group's direction and policies have	OWNER CAN'T AFI	FORD SALVAG
FAM MORT OF US AND A A A		Pacific Region Commander Col	loss of faith in Anderson's of	Historic F	erry Stu until she gives birth under an	the reasons why they changed their mind to let their daughter stay on life-	firmed he was contacted by a CAP	fectiveness. "We've last two-thirds of our pilots	JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) - The	point," Hilley said from same score, (AP) — A brain- dead pregnant woman will be keept alive until sbe gives birth under an agreement between the father of the 27- week-old female setus and the weman's parents, who had sought to turn off life-	tiscuss their feelings about the case or the reasons why they changed their mind to let their daughter stay on life- support long enough to give brith, said their stiorney, Robert E. Borton. "Provide it is a very private matter." "Descent that will blins Menderon living together and loading forward to having their baby and she marrying around Christmas.	SHS Classes	rectiveness. "We've last two-thirds of our pilots here in the Kenai Squadron for the same reason," said Pry, a formor CAP officer. "They're just disgusted with the situation." Dorothy Emsetts, the wing's per- torned afficient walt have a situation of the set.	JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — The owner of the M.V. Vashon says he can't afford to salvage the historic ferry even if it can be refloated, and the U.S. Cost Guard ayst the federal government might have to take over the cit-leaking hulk. Ferry owner Ray Armistead, of Bel- ingham, Wash, said over the week- end that he planned to raise the flood- ed freny today.	point." Hilley said from Guard office in Juneau. "That's going to be a vage. It's going to take a hot tot of temporary pumping. pairs," be said. Hilley said according from the scene, on Prince Irland, Armistead has not b find a local salvage contrac the ferry.
authbut r'	Poole said that until Miss Mondamen	Set Reunion	the situation." Dorothy Emerten, the wing's re-	the U.S. Coast Guard says the federal government might have to rate	lot of temporary pumping,
Santa Chara County Superior Court Judge John A. Plaherty may custody of	living together and looking forward to	Set Reunion	Directly Scherten, the wing's per- sonale affictre until April, sold, "People I've talked to at the other units are all completely demoralized. People are leaving left and right. They're all backing off." The disgrantled officers say Anderson largely ignores the volunteer staff. makes are transmissioned of solar	the oil-leaking halk. Ferry owner Ray Armintered of Bal	Hilley said according
The settlement signed Tuesday by Santa Chira County Superior Court Judge John A. Plaherty gave custody of the fetus to the father, Derrick Poole of Oakland, and allowed the hospital to keen the woman allow	around Christmas.	The first reunion of Sitka High School classes dating from 1932 to 1950, will be held July 3 and 4.	completely demoralized. People are leaving left and right. They're all	lingham, Wash., said over the week- end that he planned to raise the flood-	Island, Armistead has not b
	Hospital efficials, who had been caught in the middle of the dispute, called for laws that would guide families and doctors.	The event will begin with a popcern			the ferry.
"There is a problem with the law," said Mark Swendsen, atterney for	families and doctors. "This situation has brought home for	The event will begin with a popcars, party and old movies on the evening of July 2 at Sheffield Pioneer Room. Participation by walking or bus riding in the parade is scheduled for July 4. A picnic will follow at Halibut Poior Recreation Area. Participants will later take a cruise in Sitka Sound to view firewecks.	Anderson largely ignores the velocities' staff, makes assignments of aircraft that do not reflect the state's search- linatical matters. The maintained linatical matters, and an analysis of the "In ail of his dealings with the func- mation of the shall be and the state mathematical is the future of CAP — making CAL is the future of CAP — mander.	But the Coast Guard said today the 197-foot vessel still is hard aground and leaking oil in Johnson Crow, where it grounded at anchor June 6. The former Washington state ferry is listed on the National Register of Historic Ptaces. Workers from the guard's marine	And once it's afloat, he w
vinere is a problem with the law," said Mark Swendsen, atterney for Poole, 31. "We have a human being whose life is precious, whose life is worth division for not any life in	families and doctors. "This situation has brought home for us the need for some sort of societal action to help keep families, hypericans, and hospitals out of the quandary that a situation like this puts them in," said that the formale feth like the stage of development, and is in good condition, according to MA. Piezer.	riding in the parade is scheduled for July 4. A nichic will follow at Halibert	and-rescue needs, and has mishandled	The former Washington state ferry is	the money to restore it, Arm in a phone interview from before he left for the spill worth fighting for, yet whose legal status is very much in question."	and hospitals out of the quandary that a situation like this puts them in," said	Point Recreation Area. Participants will later take a cruise in Sitka Sound to	But some officers still like Anderson.	Historic Places.	30 miles away.
Poole won a court order to keep Marie Odette Henderson 31 connected to a	The female fetus weighs 2 pounds	view fireworks. A limited amount of tickets are available at $15 for the dance. Call 747-	Patrol, he has had only one thing in mind, and that is the future of CAP	safety division and the Alaska Depart- ment of Environmental Conservation	limited funds. My limitation reached once it's been float status is very much in question." The agreement came 18 days after Peole was a court erder to keep Marzie Odette Henderson, 34, connected to a life-support system at Kaiser Per- manente Medical Center just hours before the was achadright in an hours	development, and is in good condition, according to Mr. Pierces	available at $15 for the dance. Call 747- 6320 for tickets or purchase them at the office of Lloyd Harnes', above Vi's	making CAP better," said Fred Wegmer, the wing's deputy com-	Historic Places. Workers from the guard's marine safety division and the Alarka Depart- ment of Environmental Conservation remain at the size to monitor salvage efforts and the vessel's continuing oil leak, snid Petty Officer Mark Hilley. "Structural damage above the	mistead said. "The Coast quires that I do something diameter and reasonable to make been	However, Miss Henderson's condition	office of Lloyd Harnes', above Vi's Apparel.	Mander. Anderson said the problems have	leak, said Petty Officer Mark Hilley. "Structural damage above the	before he teft for the spill to 30 miles away. "I am a retired master m limited funds. My limitation reached once it's been flog mistead said. "The Coast quires that I do something we can't get any help from a historical societies. J may abandon it."
Miss Henderson has been kept alive since June 7, when she was declared	According to Ma. Pieper. However, Miss Henderson's condition has been steadily deteriorating and she is given rely a 5 percent chance of surviving more than another week, she	Apparel. To register for the reunion, call JoAnn LaCour, 747-5688.	Anderson said the problems have occurred because the wing has had its spending cut by $485,000 during the past four years.	ettoris and the vessel's continuing oil leak, said Petry Officer Mark Hilley, "Structural damage above the waterline continues to increase, but marine softety officials say the vessel still is canable of heino reflexated web-	Armistead had planned to Vashon into a floating resort.
Miss Henderson has been kept alive since June 7, when she was declared brain-dead from a brain tumor. Her parents, Edha and Otis Hen- derson of Detroit, did not want to	"We will keep the mother alive as long as possible," Ms. Pieper said.		years.	Contraction of heine retinated within	- condit into a mosting resort.
		Fish		FRIDAY
Cocaine R	ecognized	(Continued from page 1)	pete we have to fight volume with volume," said the processor. The Southeast Alaska Troll Proces-	FRID
As an Inst		ho said, "I can assure you we'll be asking you for your support when it's time for the city to invest their 25 percent," he said.	The Southeast Alaska Troll Proces-	Carl Carl Manner
		you for your support when it's time for the city to invest their 25 percent," he	money to promote troll-caught salmon, particularly in Europe.		- P - C
BOSTON (AP) — The death of basketball star Len Biss highlights a new image of cocaine that has begun to	Maryland basketball star. Dr. John Smialek, the Maryland state medical		the Southeast Alaska Troll Proces- sors organization is plauning to speed money to promote troll-caught salmon, patricularly in Europe. Halibut stocks are also "near histor- ic high levels," said Thompson, but the price has not dropped due to increased markets and sales to the Japanese.	A	S. S. Barris
new image of cocaine that has begun to emerge from case histories and autopsies: The euphoria-inducing		processed, Sitka is the 15th largest	the price has not dropped due to increased markets and sales to the Japanese.
powder is a random killer. Within the past 18 months, research	and and a state of the second	Sitka is lower in the ranking bared pewder is a random killer. Within the past 18 months, resear- chers have started to recognize that even a single encounter with the drug can sometimes cause death by stopping the heart.	"The most likely explanation is that this man was extremely sensitive to	Sitka is lower in the ranking based on weight of fish landed, with an estimated 30 million pounds. The "largest phenomenon happen- ing in the fishing industry," he said, is the Americanization of the bottomfish industry widdle. Also pool to bottomfish	An uncreasing amount of habbat is going to markets as fresh seafood, requiring air transport from Alaska to markets out of state. "If you get awakened at I in the moming by an Alaska Airlines jet, don't get mad, just think of its your sacrifice to increase the sain at your		1
can sometimes cause death by stopping the heart.	"The most likely explanation is that this man was extremely sensitive to cocaine, as some people are extremely sensitive to almost any drug," said Dr. Lester Grinnpoon, a cocaine expert at Harvard Medical School. "It's not clear how rare this is, but it's not common."	The "largest phenomenon happen- ing in the fishing industry," he cald is	"If you get awakened at I in the moming by an Alaska Airliner int	No.
"Thore are still superb cardiologists who are surprised to find out that	Harvard Medical School. "It's not clear	the Americanization of the bottomfish industry within the 200-mile U.S.	don's get mad, just think of it as your sacrifice to increase the price of hali-		and the second se cocaine can cause a lethal cardiac event," said Dr. Jeffrey Isner of Tufts	However, liner said heart damage	first that American Last year was the	Thompson applauded the city and	0	.1
"Thore are still superb cardiologists who are surprised to find out that cocaine can cause a lethal cardiac event," said Dr, Jeffrey isner of Tufts Medical School in Bastao. Isner is one of a small number of resoarchers who are studying the damaging influence of cocaine on the heart. Becently, her cococaine on the heart. Becently, her cococaine on the	from cocaline probably occurs far more often than is recognized, in part because docters rarely ask beart patients about their illicit drag use. Two effects of cocaine are certain: The drug makes the heart beart rapidly, and it raises blood pressure. This aboue could explain how cocaine kills people whote hearts are already weakened by disease.	mussily winnin the 200-mile U.S. management zone. Lass year was the first that American vessels caoph more than half the catch. Domination of the fishery zone by domestic ves- sels, to the exclusion of foreign ones, is anticipated by 1990, he said.	succifice to increase the price of fault- bat," he said to be a set of the set of the set of the memory of the set of the set of the set of the set of the memory of the set of	a Oli	ka damaging influence of cocaine on the	patients about their illicit drug use.	is anticipated by 1990, he said.	are "probably the best of any major	0 000	ra rMusic tival damaging influence of cocaine on the heart. Recently, the reported research on server young people who were hospitalized or died suddenly because of heart disorders inumediately after using cocaine.	The drug makes the heart beat rapidly, and it raises blood pressure. This aloue	Despite this trend, more than 90 percent of the catch is now being processed by foreign vessels in what are known as "joint venture" opera-	said, if the city is to continue to draw	oumme	Music of beart disorders immediately after using cocaine.	could explain how cocaine kills people whose hearts are already weakened by	are known as "joint venture" opera-	their fish here, thus creating processing	Y
Yet this complication remained obscure until the sudden death last week of Len Blas, the University of	disease. "It's like taking a person who has	Fishermen are not bypassing Alaska	jobs - more moorage facilities are needed. Thompson pointed out that Cordova	ofest	ival week of Len Bias, the University of	"It's like taking a person who has pre-existing heart disease and atking him to run a marathon," said Isser.	a boom as joint venture opera- tions, Fishermen are not bypassing Alaska processors by selling to foreigners, he said, because Alaskan processors do not have the capacity to handle the huge quantities of bottomfish in- volved. In what he termed a "Catch 22" situation, processors will not in- processors will not in-	aggressively advertises moorage space in an effort to lure out-of-town fusher- men, and that such an ad had appeared in the Daily Sika Sentinel.	0,000
COLISEUM T		huge quantities of bottomfish in-	men, and that such an ad had appeared in the Daily Sitka Sentinel	Bra	hms
COLISEUM T	WIN THEATRE			Rhapsody	in B Minor
Now Open 7	Now Open 7-Days A Week. Tuesday is Bargain Night.		In response to a question about his feelings on state marketing efforts.	Variations on a T	in E Major heme of Paganini
NOW SHOWING THROUGH JUNE 26:		sistently in recent years," said Thomp- son, turning his talk to developments	feelings on state marketing efforts, Thompson commented that it has per- haps been appropriate that the Alaska
Now Showing In	Now Showing In	However, the growing industry of	an emphasis on canned salmon promo-	Piano Trio in C	Major, opus 87
SHOW TIMES	Cinema II: SHOW TIMES	other countries has glutted the market with high quality salmon and	about the time of the Alaskan canned	Rra	hms
SunThurs. 7:10 Sun. Matinee 3:00	SunThurs. 7:15 Sun. Matinee 3:10	driven down prices, he continued. He predicted that fishermen with	in huge unsold backlogs of ware-	String Sextet in C	Major, opus 36
"Brazil"	A Make-	receive 15 to 18 cents a pound for nonrefrigerated pink salmon sold on	Now, however, the organization should begin to place more emotion
Voted Best Picture by the L.A. Film Association.	Phone Believe Cop	out whether they can find a market. We've is seen sear record runs con- trained the sear the search of the search search of the search of the search of the the domestic industry. However, the growing industry of other coexists in a plant due market with high quality islamon and has other coexists in a plant due market with high quality islamon and has been been been been been been been been been	haps been appropriate only the Al Alex Sectord Marcing Institute has placed an emphasis on cannot statum op prom- tion, since ASMC carns into being stort the time of the Alastan cannot the time of the Alastan cannot be alastan and the status of the bound cannot salmon. Now, however, the organization should begin to place more emphasis though begin to place more emphasis from the time of the status of the store of the status of the status of the status of the store of the status of	At the request of the musicians, o	hildren under 6 are not admits
	J OFF	20 cents last year and 45 cents several years ago. Prices for troll-caught salmon are expected to average out this year as the lowest in many years, he continued. Despite the oversupply of salmon on the marker. Sites Several Sandman on	forts "commendable, but not nearly enough," pointing out that funds spent
STARTS FRIDAY:		to average out this year as the	uy use Alaskan seafood industry are	FRIDAY.	JUNE 27
STARTS FRIDAY: "SLEEPING BEAUTY" AND	REAT	Despite the overcurrely of ral	small in comparison with the vast	,
STARTS FRIDAY:	BEAT	Prices for troll-caught salmon are expected to years, he continued, lowest in many years, he continued, Despite data and the salmon enhancement intents to aspect admon enhancement programs. "We have no control over the non- Alaskan product, and we feel to com-	amounts of money spent by other food industries. "All the best advanticion under	8:15 p.n	1. Sharp

Copyright © 2020 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.

/