

BUSINESS/5D DEATHS/3D COMICS/12D

Gulf Coast News

Tuesday, January 5, 1988

The Miami Herald Section D

Trial in '78 slaying moved back to Charlotte

By LOUI ROZSA... trial selection for Bradley Phillips... Scott's murder trial is scheduled to begin today in Punta Gorda...

pretrial publicity. Neither the defense nor the state had requested that move...

"He ruled on it all of a sudden last week, he said he was moving the trial on his own."

said no other 10 potential jurors were questioned in an informal test...

Milver on Monday also turned down a motion by Scott's attorney to dismiss the case...

Fish finders

A father and son check out the fishing at Myakka River State Park near Sarasota. The river and nearby lakes have bass, bream and catfish.

Manatees don't need feeders, state DNR says

By LOUI ROZSA... Manatee lovers in Lee County want to do all they can to help the gentle sea cows survive...

"We don't want to further domesticate them," Kipp Frolich of the Department of Natural Resources said...

Researchers target Formosan termites

By ANN BRADLEY... They are very lousy fliers. They can only go about 400 to 500 feet, so it's very slow natural spreading...

"They are very lousy fliers. They can only go about 400 to 500 feet, so it's very slow natural spreading."

"Hallelujah is the Formosan termite capital of the United States, except for Hawaii," said State Rep. Tom Beck...

DeSoto site on list for hazardous waste

TALLAHASSEE — An old DeSoto County rice mill site is on a list of hazardous waste treatment facilities...

"We anticipate that the treatment facility, where built, will consist of a warehouse, laboratory, chemical neutralization units and a state-of-the-art incinerator," said Trawickman...

BUSINESS ON THE GULF COAST

Panel to interview council candidates... A 16-member selection committee called NAC-PAC... IRS ADVISER... GROUND-BREAKING FOR STONEGATE... ANNOUNCEMENTS...

Business Advice... The Naples Chamber of Commerce, along with the Small Business Development Center... Ground-breaking for Stonegate... Announcements...

Fishing guide's body washes ashore... The body of a 45-year-old Captiva Island fishing guide washed up on Fort Myers Beach... Robert Fradmann of Naples has been named head president and branch manager of Dean Winter Reynolds for the Florida region...