Bills Round	lup: Taxes	Peel Defe	ense Again	Loses Mist	rial Plea
For Schools	Sought		0
UNEAU (AP) - Rep. Kay Wallin on	is just a figure. It may be considerably	JUNEAU (AP) — Anger spilled over Friday at the murder trial of John Kenneth Peel as Peel's lawyer demanded a mistrial, accusing the	vestigating the case and the pressure they felt to find the killer when abe asked Stogsdill: "Is this case solved?" "Yes " the trooper sold.	question was funny. I don't think a murder trial is funny," Henry said. The proceedure said her questions were almed at answering issues that had been raised earlier by Weldner when he cross-examined Stogadil. She	tions of suspects?" Henry asked. "Almost always. It's human nature," Stogodill said. The description that helped lead to Peel's arrest included UNEAU (AP) — Rep. Kay Wallis on day raised a lopic that few makers wate to talk about this tilen year; taxes. he Fort Yukon Democrat in- heed legislation (IBH4) to bring k the $10-per-person payroll tax the defrapped in $90.0 he tax generated $2.8 million (or obs the last year if was collected	reduced," Kerttula said Friday. JUNEAU (AP) The Senate Special	Superior Court Judge Walter Car-	asked stogethil: "Is this case solven?" "Yes," the trooper axid. "Do yeu think it's fair that John Kenneth Peel he allowed to get away with murder because you midde mistakes?" Henry asked.	had been raised earlier by Weldner when he cross-examined Stogadill. She	hetped lead to Peel's arrest included physical characteristics mentioned by more than one witness, the trooper he Fort Yukon Democrat in- luced legislation (HB414) to bring	Committee on AIDS Prevention wants to give the Department of Law $96,60	terney Phillip Weidner's request to end the trial and dismiss the charges	with murder because you made mistakes?"Henry asked. Weidner immediately objected,	also said the questions were no more prejudicial than those asked by Weldner, questing his repeated	said. Stonedill also remended to Weicher's k the $10-per-person payroll tax the e dropped in 1960.	to hire a medical expert. If approved, the medical staff would	against Peel because of questions prosecutor Mary Anne Henry had	Weidher immediately objected, claiming the prosecutor was asking questions aimed at biasing the jury before they heard all the facts.	when he cross-extention stoggall, she also said the questions were no more prejudicial than those asked by Weidner, quoting his reported reference to Peel as "an innocent man, falsely accured."
oe tax generated $2.8 million for sols the last year it was collected. This is a fair and equitable tax and it	JUNEAU (AP) - The Secale specia Committee on AIDS Prevention wands to give the Department of Law 198,60 to hire a medical expert. If approved, the medical staff would address legal issues surrounding AIDS acquired immune deficiency syn drome, and other public bealth mat- ters.	asked a witness. Weidner has asked for a mistrial several times, and has been denied	before they heard all the facts. "This is outrageous misconduct by the prosecution," Weidner said. "It's asking (the jury) to disregard the midners".	Taisely occited." Carpeneti turaed down the motion for a mistrial and angrily admonished Weidner for repeatedly delaying the court session.	curridges from the bullets used in the murdern. The cartridges could have been used to link the bullets to the murder weapon, Weidner said.
way for all Alaskans to participate apporting education," Wallis said.	ters. The position was suggested by the	each time. Peel, 27, is accused of murdering		court session. "This is a court of law to try cases. It	murder weapon, Weidner said.
aber of ways to shelter education a swings in state revenue, including	ters, The position was suggested by the state epidemiologist, who said Alaska, like other states, soon may face con- troversies over the right to bealth care protection of medical workers and similar issues.	Peel, 27, is accused of murdering eight people aboard the fishing boat Investor in Craig during the night of Sept. 5, 1982. He also is accused of	Weidner accused Henry of trying to force a restart of the trial because thisne water and going wall for the	is not a forum for either counsel to make accusations," Carpeneti said. The jury was cal of the courterers	Stegadill said the cartridges, had they been left behind by the killer, would have been washed into the octan by ed cropped in 1980. The Lax generated 28 million of 28 mi	protection of medical workers and similar issues.		prosecution. "They're losing the case; they know it," Weidner said.	when the arguments took place. Car- peneti later told the panet he had ruled	Stegadill said the cartridges, had they been left behind by the killer, would have been washed into the octain by firefighters or would have beet destroyed in the arisen fire that con- sumed the investor.
ut so far the House and Senate have wn little interest in any tax	JUNEAU (AP) - Bethel Sen, Johns Binkley proposes giving the University	as Henry was finishing her questioning of Alaska State Trooper Sgt. James Storsdill. a murder and arson in-	weighter accused isenty of urging to force a related of the trial becaute things were not going well for the prosecution. "They're loaing the case; they know it," Weighter said. Henry said she would not respond to what size labeled an emotional outburst by Weighter. In answering chains she was triving to imprace the influence the	court session. "This is a court of law to try cases. It is not a forum for either coursel to make accusations," Carpered isaid. The jury was out of the courtseen when the arguments took place. Car- peneit late told the gast he had ruled ferry's two questions were inproper and should be spaced. During earlier questioning typ Henry, Stoggall answered another Weldner accusation about froepers improperly	After excusing Stogsdill, the prosecution brought to the stand an sures.	of Alaska $250,000 in seed money to found the Institute for Circumpolan Reality Studies	Stogsdill, a murder and arson in- vestigator who has been on the witness stand since testimony began Jan. 19.	was trying to improperly influence the jury, she said, "I did not do that."	Stogsdill answered another Weidner accusation about troopers improperly	After excusing Stogsdill, the prosecution brought to the stand an Anthorage dentist who testilied he had used dental records to identify two of the badis-burned badies found on board INEAU (AP) - Lawmakers are idening a subsidy for the Iditarod I Committee Inc., but even sup- ers say the bill will have tougher ding than usual in the Legislature	The center is being planned by the university's Dr. Ted Mala, who is	stand since testimony began Jan. 19. Henry was addressing questions posed earlier by Weidner about mistakes troopers made in in-	by vectore, in answering control of the was trying to imprepently influence the jury, she taid, "I did not do that." When Weidner chuckled about a question Henry asked, her voice grew tense. "Mr. Weidner thinks my	accusation about troopers improperly disregarding descriptions given by witnesses of the suspect in the case – descriptions that didn't match Peel.	the boat as Investor skipper Mark Coulthurst and his wife, Irene.
ding than usual in the Legislature use money's in short supply.	JUNEAU (AP) - Bethin Sen, Johns Haidey propose dyring the University of Alaska $25,000 in seed meansy 4: found the institute for Circomposite Reath Statistics for Circomposite mechang of methy and the statistical sectors werking with Soviet physicians to stup an exchange of methods information. Sinday's bills (SBF7) and SISB00. Toole that (det probled) information. Sinday's bills (SBF7) and SISB00. Toole that (det probled) information. Sinday's bills, SBF73 and SISB00. Toole that (det probled) information.	Donty I or		trongth in	Doform ming them usual in the Legislature use mencys' in shahrd supply. bill (SB377) introduced by Sen. Jay tuln, D-Palmeer, would give the dog race committee $200,000 to pay off its debts. Iver the years from time to time e contributed to the Iditarod. This	note that other polar areas and nations including Canada, Siberia, Greenland and Scandinavia, have studied common	Farty Lea		trength in 1 pay off its debts. Iver the years from time to time	problems related to living in the fas north, but that Alaska has failed to exchange research with them.	ANCHORAGE (AP) — The leaders of Alaska's two major political parties agree that proposed campaign reform legislation would strengthen the state's weak next excitem	political party. The parties, meanwhile, can give any amount they choose to a candidate.	said. "And also the public would be able to hold one party or another responsible for the candidates that are elected. It's	unfair advantage to incumbents. The unlimited campaign period also favors candidates with money, they say. But Crawford said the unlimited agree that proposed campaign recorm legislation would strengthen the state's weak party system. Jack Roderick, chairman of the state	The proposed measure probably would increase the amount of con-	for the candidates that are elected. It's no secret the parties aren't that strong here and I think any move that would change that is a positive step for the mate."	But Crawford said the unlimited campaign period can burt the in-
Seattle Law		Jack Roderick, chairman of the state Democratic Party, and Jim Crawford, head of the state Demoklican Texts		change that is a positive step for the party."	didate a better chance. "If you've got someone who needs to go out and get
Japanese R	ights Case	Democratic Party, and Jim Crawford, head of the state Republican Party, testified Thursday before the Alaska Public Offices Commission.	you're discussing is a good idea," Roderick said. "The Democratic Party, I believe, could pick up the respon- sibility" for providing cash to finance	party." Roderick and Crawford differed on a proposal to limit the amount of time a candidate would be allowed to cam- natum for office.	But Grawford said the unimited campaign period can burt the in- cumbent, giving the dark horse can- didate a better chance. "If you've got someone who needs to go out and get name recognition, they need that time," he said. "I think this could create a substantial invaluations between an incumbent and a challenger if the time scene hortened."
-		The commission is considering a full now in the Senate that would allow only	campaigns. Crawford agreed.	The law now allows elected officials ATTLE (AP) — A Seattle lawyer hting for the right to take notes in a nese courtroom. rev Beneta is anonaling a Tokyo	says a check by a Tokyo bar association found no instances where the Tokyo District Coart granted such a request.	Public Offices Commission. The commission is considering a bill now in the Senate that would allow only individuals and recognized parties to comate to a candidate for public office. State law now allows individuals.	campaigns. Crawford agreed. "Initially, I think the idea of restricting contributors to individuals and matther is a stand one. I bink you	to compaign throughout their term for re-election, and critics say that gives an	Roderick said the Democratic Party would like to see the period shortened.
hting for the right to take notes in a ness courtroam. rry Repeta is appealing a Tokyo ict Court policy of not allowing ators at trials to take notes in the room. He contends the policy to the Income constitution and	Repeta was denied permission repeatedly over three years. Once the	and other groups to give up to $1,000 to a candidate and an unlimited amount to a	and parties is a good one. I think you might see partisan organization in both houses if this were enacted," Crawford	Environme	nt Groups ternational covenant on civil and	stocktrower's trait conclusion in two, ne filed suit to challenge the ban. By limiting note-taking to certain members of the Japanese press, the court is impeding the public's access to information, Repeta says. "It's hard to imagine a case where theirs end to imagine a case where theirs end to imagine a case where theirs end to access the store."	Ctata Mala	Dussians	Back Mine cal rights signed by Japan in 1979. icle 21 of Japan's constitution	members of the Japanese press, the court is impeding the public's access to information, Repeta says.	State Make		BE DAVID FORTER
s that "freedoom of assembly and inition as well as speech, press and ther forms of expression are niteed. No censorship shall be tained, nor shall the socrecy of means of communication be red."	turtific upics in a contributi direstens	Against Wo	off Louse	Associated Press Writer ANCHORAGE (AP) — An en- vironmental coalition that persuaded a	Only McClain has filed the necessary paperwork to get out from under the order. "The record shows that McClain has tained, nor shall the socrecy of nucans of communication be	the fairness of the trail," he said. Franklyn Haiman, a Northwestern University professor and expert on Japanese press frendom issues, sympathizes with Repeta, bat said he is not optimise about his chances for success. Haiman said Japan's Sopremo	By DAVID FOSTER Associated Press Writer ANCHORAGE (AP) State game	be continued, said Dan Timm, the ADF&G's southcentral game super- visor. Instead, biologists will rely on	federal judge last year to shut down placer gold mines on soveral interior Alaska rivers now says one mine should be allowed to run because it won't foul	complied with all state water auality standards, including turbidity," said Hex Blazer, executive director of the Northern Alaska Environmental ed." December, the Tokyo High Court, meals court, ruled atjainst Repeta	sympathizes with Repeta, but said he is not optimistic about his chances for	ANCHORAGE (AP) - State game officials say they have made progress in controlling a lame infestation among		Alaska rivers now says one mine should be allowed to run because it won't foul the water	Northern Alaska Environmental Center. presenteer, the lower high court, peals court, ruled against Repela upheld the right of judges to mine whether courtroom dures would be disrupted by alors taking motes. Répeta's at 3 ya have since filed an appeal with 've forement Court	success. Haiman said Japan's Supreme Court has never overturned a govern- ment action hased on the charge it biblisted Article 21. 1915 5 5 5 1 1 2	Kenal Peninsula wolves, but they still are worried the exotic parasite could	insurect methods of treatment. Spraker said he once successfully treated a pack by injecting Ivermeetin into a moose that the wolves hold killed but had not finished eating. He said he will by that again if given the op-	be allowed to ran because at won't foul the water. The coalition, represented by the Sierra Club Legal Defense Fund, this week recommanded to U.S. District Judge James von der Heydt that miner thes Medicine he allowed to overrite on	McClain's plan of operations shows he will recisim more land during the dures would be disrupted by alors taking notes. Repeta's at ³	violated Article 21.	A louse-infested wolf is unsightly and	but had not finished eating. He said he will try that again if given the op-	week recommonded to U.S. District Judge James von der Heydt that miner	The mine will incorporate settling a's Supreme Court. hat the Japanese court says is	Dan Hendersin, a specialist in Japanese law at the University of Washington Law School, said the rejection of Repota's appeal reflects	ANGORAGE (AP) — Sate game efficials say they have made progress in controlling a lates infratation array (small Periaintu welves, but they still are werried the exotic parasite could agreed to inject Adata. 	win by that again it given the op- portunity. The department also is offering trappers the going rate for wolf hides	John McClain be allowed to operate on Faith Creek, northeast of Fairbacks. McClain is the first and only miner to	Northern Alaska groutnamental Center. McClain's plan of operations shows he will recision more land during the next three years than he has distarbed. The mine- will incorparate settlings filtration — all methods' of verducing sediment in wastewater discharged isea stream from a huncer mine's ya have since hied an appeal with yé Squereme Coart. hat the Japanese court says is s are above the law," skid Repta, pecializes in Japanese law. "A has the pelice power to regulate unitroom. That's what makes the icens of the first muine challenge."	the power of bureaucrats within the	Kenai area game biologist for the Alaska Department of Fish & Game.	trappers the going rate for wolf hides - about $375 - if they spare a lowsy wolf caught in one of their traps. Biologists will go cal to the trap, treat the wolf and	apply for an exemption to the injunction that you der Heydt issued last May. In his injunction, the judge agreed with environmentalists that the federal	staice box, "We think it's great that Mr. McClain surfroom. That's what makes the	the power of bureaucrats within the Japanese policial system. "The court's acting like a bureaucrat, is its administrative role, not its, judicial role," He sold. "I sup- pose judges looking at the case from a	Lousy well pups born in summer may	Spraker said he is optimistic the	with environmentalists that the federal Bureau of Land Management had not	realizes that complying with applicable environmental laws is part of the cost of doing business," Blazer suid. "We look case is the first major challenge note-taking ban, Repcta said. He	not its judicial role," he said. "I sup- pose judges looking at the case from a	Lousy well pups born in summer may be just two-thirds the weight of bealthy pups by autumn, reducing their characes of survival. No deaths have been documented, but mortailiy probably wuld be higher in a colder area such as inferior Alaska, Spraker exid	program will work.	Bureau of Land Management had not studied mining's cumulative en- vironmental impacts on three rivers designated "national wild and scenic Liberties Union, the Japan onal Federation of Bar	pose judges looking at the case from a Japanese perspective are likely to be more sympathetic to the judge's right to run his own courtreem."	been documented, but mortality probably would be higher in a colder	"I mank elimination or note on ine Kenai is more than we can hope for," he said. "But control to the Kenai so it deeso't spread to the rest of the state is within our hopes. Once this got off the Kenai, it would be impossible to con- trat?"	rivers." The rivers are Birch Creek, the	for which is separate in a creative, environmentally sound manner." An environmental assessment by the BLM concluded the mine did nat contribute to the examinative impact on the Minte Electric designer.
cistions and the nation's leading icasters and newspapers.	Ropeta said he knows the odds are against him, but hopes he'll win.	Biologists say the losse, trichodectes	within our hopes. Once this got off the Kenai, it would be impossible to con- trol."	Fortymile River and Beaver Creek - all heavily mined streams in the In- terior. The judge also ordered a review	BLM concluded the mine did not con- tribute to the cumulative impact on the Minto Flats drainage.
is case is the first major challenge received support from the Japan Libertise Union, the Japan onai Federation of Bar Taldious and the cation's leading loaders and newspapers. fight began airs years age while he researching a book on the researching a book on the researching a book on the ease securities exchange. He ded to attend the trial of a stock- who had benc charved with har	Firm to Pay	canis, first appeared on Kenai wölves in the early 1960s, probably riding on domestic dogs that later were killed by		of mining impacts on subsistence hunting and fishing in the Minto Flats, west of Fairbanks.	Minio Fatua deninage. "It word he my expectation that the judge would lat the guy go forward," and Barnett. "Its unopposed now, All the parties agree that the mine should be allowed to operatio." Curl ReVee, executive director of the datasa Minter Association, and the environmental association, such the environmental association, such the responsible mixed. "Its good news, even though we're idu op in the curlt, hast Üherv's ed to attend the trial of a stock- rr who had been charged with tax	For Gas Spill	wolves.	The use are slow to spread because they cannot survive for long off an animal's body and must be passed directly from well to wold. In recent yoars, at loast two wolves have ventimed across the narrow mick of land that connects the peninsula to mainland Alaska, Spraker said. "Doe wolf their as hed treated was	west of Fairbanks. The judge said that until the studies	said Barnett. "It's unopposed now. All the parties agree that the mine should be allowed to operate ?"
when he tried to take notes, hn that court rules limited note-	ANCHORAGE (AP) - A fish processing company has agreed to contain and clean up an estimated 35,000 gations of gasoline that spilled at	By 1984, lice infeated at least 40 of the peoinsuls's estimated 190 wolves. All five wolf packs on the northern peninsula were affected, Spraker sold. The ADF/&G aggressively treated the infeatestic during the universe of 1989 to	have ventured across the narrow neck of land that connects the peninsula to	The judge said that until the studies are done — not expected before next December — mines disturbing more than five acres in the affected river	Curl McVee, executive director of the Alaska Miners Association, said the
on. when he tried to take notes, hn i that court rules limited note- g to select members of the sease press, court efficials and s directly involved in the trial.	its plant near regian, the Department	The ADF&G aggressively treated the infestation during the winters of 1983 to	mainland Alaska, Spraker said. "One wolf that we had treated was shot by a hunter in Talkestna. If we	drainages nuss shut down. But the judge did give miners a way cot. They may file for an exemption if	environmental coalition's recom- mendation bodes well for other responsible miners.
tators can ask the court for	Togisk Fisheries Inc. has signed a compliance order calling for im- mediate containment of the spiil, the DEC said. The company also promised	infestation during the winters of 1983 to 1985, tracking wolves with the help of state Fish & Wildlife Protection Division pilot Chuck Rogers, Spraker	hadn't treated that wolf, it could have spread lice to an interior pack."	they can show their operations do not contribute to the cumulative en-	"It's good news, even though we're tied up in the courts, that there's mediate containment of the spill, the DEC said. The company also promised	said.	"Unb wolt trait we had reated was shot by a bunker in Talkeetna. If we hadn't treated that wolf, it could have spread lice to an interior pack." The other was a healthy wolf trapped east of Palmer in 1869. It had been collared during a Kenai Peninsula wolf stude to the 1879.	drainages nust shut down. Bat the judge did give minors a way cet. They may file for an exemption if they can show their operations do not contribute to the cumulative en- vironmental impact. Philip Barnett, a Sierra Chub Legal Defense Paud alterney, staf Priday the injunctice shat down 30 to 50 mines.	"It's good news, even though we're ided up in the courts, that there's agreement that an operation does not have substantial impacts," be said. "I hope that the action on this one will encourage others to follow suit."
All and a	derground costamination and submit a plan for cleaning it up by April 1.	then radio-collared and injected with Ivermoctin, which kills internal and	study in the 1970s.	injunction shut down 30 to 50 mines.	encourage others to follow suit."
100s of)	mediate containment or lise spies, the DEC said. The compary also promised to determine the extent of any un- dergrecund containniation and submits plan for cleaning it up by April 1. The plan is to describe cleanup and restoration actions proposed for this summer, the agency said.	A foligy wear which we a helicopter, trangeilizer: dart from a helicopter, there radio-collared and injected with livernoctin, which kills internal and external parasitor. The collar helped biologists track down and treat other pack members.		ITA NITTY
New	Banks Merge	All five infested packs were treated, and all now appear to be louse-free.		WANTED:
	ANCHORAGE (AP) — Alliance Bancerp, wrapped up its restructuring and recapitalization program Thursday with an infusion of $351 million in cash	All five infested packs were treated, and all now appear to be louse-free, Spraker said. But lice have spread to the southern part of the peninsula, infesting an estimated seven to 25 workers	BLOOD DONORS		DRS
Miniatures	and recapitalization program Thursday with an infusion of $361 million in cash from a New York-based merchant	eorea.
now in!	from a New York-based merchant banking company and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, of- ficial and	"We know that we have lice on at least one pack of wolves near Ninlichik, and we may have lice on two more	Who: People v	who are willing to give of them	selves Alliance, an Alaska-based bank holding company, was created with the	and we may have lice on two more packs, the Fox River and Ancher River," Spraker said. The helicopter-tracking program was dangerous and expensive and will not	Why: There is a need.
	banking company and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, of- ficials said. Alitance, an Alaska-based bank holding company, was ereated with the merger of Alaska Mutual Bancorp. and United Bancorp. Alaska.	angerous and expositive and will not		nly you can give, life saving blo
Valentine and	State Recover	s Fire Costs	Sign up to Easter Miniatures:	ANCHORAGE (AP) - The state has reached an cut-of-court settlemant	message to anyone who misuses fire in the out-of-doors," said State Forester		m: Sitka Community Hospital Friday 9am to 4pm	, Feb. 1-6
	ANCHORAGE (AP) - The state has reached an out-of-court settlement worth $40,000 with a Wasilla con- struction company accused of starting a fire that spreed out of courtol near	message to anyone who misuses fire in the cut-of-doers," said State Forester John Galae. While the $40,000 deal does not cover the total cost of lighting the fire, it does help defray express, Galae said. The attents investigated all human.	National Bank of	of Alaska, Saturday, Feb. 6 help defray expenses, Galca suid. The agency investigates all human- caused fires throughout south central	Noon to 3	m xes, Cakes, Baskets,	195 acres. Alternay representing the Alaska division of Porestry worked out the gereanent this weak with Golden North Contracting Ize., officials said. "The company was building a road "The work of the said of the Work Inon." I was a said of the Work Inon." I work the said of the Work Inon. The Second Second Second Second Second Second Second Contra- tes said Second Seco	Alaska.	This round-up of volunteers is sponsored by the orcelain People and OTS MORE! At	Contracting Inc., officials said. "The company was building a road	The division intends to presecute fire law offenders when negligenco, blatent violations and repeat offenses occur, Color enders	Sitka Shriners, Sitka Community Hospital Auxiliary,
The	Wehrman, a forestry division spokesman, "They were burning some	violations and repeat effenses occur, Galea said. "If our fire investigators determine	Sitka Community Hospital
Finishing	debris, and they weren't watching it wery closely. The fire gained the woodlands and look off "	who the responsible person is, then we'll send the bill and go from there," Webrman sald Fride"	E-11	lantad - Cim II-T	daul
Touch	for human-caused fires such as Hor-	Galca said. "If our fire investigators determine who the responsible person is, then we'll send the bill and go from here," Wehrman said Priday. A growing number of warnings and citations are being issued each year, with fines up to $500, officials said.	reel	Vanted – Sign Up T	baay!
	seshoe Lake should send a strong	with fines up to $500, officials said.

Copyright © 2020 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.

/