

Page 2C

LOCAL/OREGON

Statesman Journal, Salem, Ore., Wednesday, July 18, 1990

An 11-story tall modular building bound for the Alaskan oil fields is rolled toward a barge at Swan Island shipyard. The module, and others like it, are being shipped started this week.

Portland crews finish Alaskan modules
The Associated Press
PORTLAND — Workers have completed construction of oil-pumping units bound for Alaska's oil fields.

Oregon Dateline
Santiam Junction
County will expand search for missing girl

5 Remps in Salem will close for paving
Getting on and off Interstate 5 in Salem is going to be difficult for a few days.

Buena Vista
The Buena Vista ferry on the Willamette River northwest of Salem will be closed today.

Albany
Groups will perform for Thursday concert
The second in a series of river concerts will be held Thursday at Mendocino River park.

WOSC offers talks by faculty members
Two presentations remain today and July 25 — in the summer lecture series offered by Western Oregon State College.

Salem
Divers hired by family find boy's body in river
Two Salem divers Tuesday recovered the body of a 13-year-old boy who drowned Sunday in the Willamette River at Wallace Marine Park.

Man fractures spine when boat hits wave
A 60-year-old Yaluma, Wash., man fractured his spine while riding his boat Sunday morning.

Lincoln fair opens Thursday

By Frank King
NEWPORT — A lumberjack show will perform four times daily, Thursday through Saturday.

Keizer police are in line for raise

Council endorses 5 percent increase
KEIZER — Keizer police officers and records clerks are on the verge of receiving a 5 percent pay raise.

ALMANAC

Corrections

Errors appearing in the Statesman Journal will be brought to the attention of the city desk by telephoning 399-6677.

Obituaries

Obituaries, births and other news of record are on Page 2B.

Meetings Today

- Public Hearing on the proposed new water rate at 10:30 a.m. in Room 108 of the Courthouse, 800 Main St. Salem.

Courts

- Marion County
COURT REPORTER: RALPH DEAN
DUNCAN and Nancy Adams.

Law and Safety

- 247 a.m. — medical at 3145 Teas Ave. NE, unresponsive.

Burglary

- 7:55 p.m. — medical at 3517 River St. NE, unresponsive.

Pre-fair events started last Friday with a 4 1/2 judging. That will continue until the fair closes 4 1/2 weeks will be presented on the main stage Saturday at 4:30 p.m.

Basically what it's going to turn out to be is a cost-of-living increase.
— Jack Bookbinder
Of the Keizer Police Association.

ALMANAC
Lotteries
PORTLAND — Here are Tuesday's winning numbers in the Oregon Daily 4 lottery: 2-8-9-4

Editors to Call
Ray Gault (399-8772)
Sports Editor
Questions about sports coverage

Deaths
John Felipe Belmont: 80, 1000 1/2 Ave. SE, 1000 1/2 Ave. SE, 1000 1/2 Ave. SE, 1000 1/2 Ave. SE.

Deaths
1:47 a.m. — medical at 3145 Teas Ave. NE, unresponsive.

Burglary
Tools worth $700 were stolen Saturday at 4000 Lancaster Dr. NE, unresponsive.