

SECTION B

CITY & STATE

Saturday, August 8, 1992 Austin American-Statesman

INSIDE Deaths, B4 TV listings, B6 Comics, B7

Public responds to plea for help in yogurt killings

By Kimberly Garcia American-Statesman Staff Police investigated the slayings of four teen-agers at a yogurt shop...

charged with aggravated kidnapping. The TV program showed photographs of the three...

Police receive more than 60 calls as TV show examines new search

Austin, was arrested in May in Kansas City a few days after America's Most Wanted aired a show about him...

shortly after the slayings at the yogurt shop and have not returned. They are being sought on federal charges of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution...

Officials with America's Most Wanted said the number of calls received about the suspect focusing on the Austin cases won't be known until later.

Michael Robinson of the Dallas Puppet Theatre adjusts a puppet for a performance at the Puppets of America Southwest Regional Festival...

PUPPET PASSION

Ancient art of puppeteering still pulls at the heartstrings

By Scott W. Wright American-Statesman Staff There is a fairy-tale world where full and feathered adorned creatures come incessantly to life with a flick of the wrist...

They are among the 60 to 80 aficionados of the ancient art who have gathered for Austin's St. Edward's University this week for a three-day conference on the subject...

GOP asks court to reject change in Senate districts

By Dave McNealy American-Statesman Capitol Staff Texas' secretary of state should be held in contempt of court for violating state Senate election law...

Texas Secretary of State John Hanham is a target in an appeal against a new voting map for Senate races.

Legislature's plan is better for minorities than the Austin court's plan. That led to Hanham's order. Hanham said that continues comfortable running in new districts can relinquish their nominations...

Review finds no harassment at hospital

By Denise Gorman American-Statesman Staff MHRM team calls for sensitivity training because they found evidence the secretary participated in sexually explicit conversation...

sexual harassment policy change is announced. "Sexual harassment is unacceptable, period," said Dr. Tony Jones, commissioner of MHRM...

State funding to schools fails to meet expectations

By Debbie Graves American-Statesman Capitol Staff the had news Thursday that the low would be $11 million. But Austin is by no means alone. The Round Rock Independent School District, for example, had budgeted for a $1 million provision...

North Austin couple held prisoner as robbers ransack home, take car bearing Texas license plate GCN-77L. The robbers took the car keys and drove the car out of the driveway. Police are asking anyone who sees the vehicle to call 911 immediately...

By Kerry Highland American-Statesman Staff A North Austin couple were held prisoner in their home Friday by two men who ransacked their home and stole their automobile...

"They terrorized those people for 45 minutes, and that is scary," she said. "This is just a scary situation. I feel for these people. They probably won't want to come back to their home."