'Yes, I'm angry. . . Yes, I'm bitter. I'm frustrated'

"You get to realize," says Joseph Green Brown, now known to almost everyone as Shubilo, "you get a man in a cage and that's like a dog. Talk to him like a dog, walk like a dog. . . they're gonna come a time he wants to bite you a dog." For Shubilo, that time came 13 years ago, when he was in Florida's death row house. . .

Joseph Green Brown, known as Shubilo, came within 15 hours of execution. He spent more than 12 years on death row.

Shubilo's wife, Barbara, says she never knew the other side of her husband. . . She says she never knew the other side of her husband. . . She says she never knew the other side of her husband. . .

Deave Roy Keaton, 47, lives alone in his hometown of Quincy, Fla. Since being released from prison in 1979, he has a hard time thinking about what he wants most: a woman and a challenging job.

'The stigma is always there'

Though Keaton says he has no regrets about his death row experience, he says he still has a hard time thinking about what he wants most: a woman and a challenging job. . .

For five years, Keaton has worked 95 an hour as a tree trimmer, turning branches into mulch. It's a tedious job, but he says he doesn't have to think too much about it.

'We don't look back'

When Bradley Scott returned home after 3 1/2 years on death row, his father went to the court just to be with him. . .

Bradley Scott, 40, was free when he came out of prison in 1991. He had only a brown grocery bag with two shirts and a pair of shoes.
